Oil Slick Threat

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP)—An experimental floating oil barrier, designed to combat spills, was stored at Morehead City, N.C., the Coast Guard said, and will be put into operation if the oil drifts closer to shore.

No immediate effort was made to separate the drifting, heavily damaged ships for fear one would sink.

A commercial tug arrived at the collision scene Friday afternoon to survey damage to the Colombian bulk cargo ship Republica de Colombia and the American container ship Trans-Hawaii, which rammed the Colombian vessel amidships late Thursday afternoon.

The bow of the 632-foot Trans-Hawaii was still buried in the port side of the 574-foot Republica de Colombia, which had been abandoned by her crew Thursday night.

A Coast Guard party boarded the Republica de Colombia early Friday to check damage and to search for the ship's missing chief engineer, Miguel Antonio Darrago, who was on duty below decks when the collision took place about 5 p.m. Thursday.

Smaller patches of drifting oil were sighted as near as five miles from the coast, and the commercial firm, Industrial Marine Services, prepared to combat the small slicks if they moved ashore.

Kissinger—Talks

PARIS (AP)—Henry A. Kissinger held another secret meeting on Friday with Le Duc Tho and Xuan Thuy, North Vietnam's top peace negotiators. Neither side would reveal what they discussed.

President Nixon's security adviser spent 90 minutes later in the day with President Georges Pompidou before departing for Washington, where he is scheduled to give a news conference for Saturday.

He was believed to have informed Pompidou on his talks with Kremlin leaders and discussed with him European security matters and the forthcoming European summit meeting. Kissinger is returning from Moscow, where he had three days of discussions on trade and Vietnam.

The presidential adviser began the day in London, where he met with Prime Minister Edward Heath on Thursday to brief him on the Moscow talks. At 6 a.m. he flew across the English Channel to France in a light executive plane while the U.S. embassy was still insisting he was in London.

Several hours later, the embassy in Paris announced he was meeting with the North Vietnamese. Tho is a member of the Hanoi politburo. Thuy is head of the delegation to the peace talks.

It was the 17th secret session between Kissinger and Tho in an effort to find a way out of the deadlock which has prevailed through 159 meetings of the semi-public Paris talks.

As he emerged from the Elysee Palace after his visit with Pompidou, Kissinger would only confirm that he had held talks with Tho earlier in the day.

The embassy issued an announcement saying: "In accordance with our agreement with the other side, we have no further information to provide you on this meeting."

The North Vietnamese delegation said, "We have nothing to say on this subject."

Anti-Terror Plan

LONDON (AP)—West Germany is urging the creation of a new international police system to foil Arab commando and other terrorist gangs, European diplomats reported Friday.

They said 10 European nations now have the plan under study. Initial British and French reactions were cool despite the horror they expressed over the Munich massacre of 11 Israeli Olympic team members by Arab terrorists.

Just as Interpol now has an anticriminal mission, the proposal by Foreign Minister Walter Scheel was that the present and prospective members of the European Common Market should combine security operations within this new security setup.

The 10 nations are France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg, Britain, Norway, Denmark and Ireland. The German initiative will be discussed in some detail by diplomats of the 10 countries in The Hague Sept. 21-22.

In private, officials of Britain and France have been pointing up the difficulties and complexities of tighter and more coordinated action. Both are preoccupied with improving ties with Egypt and other Arab countries.

After the Munich massacre, Scheel, at a foreign ministers' meeting in Rome this week, called for a conference of interior ministers, or their top security chiefs, to tighten antiterrorist policy in the 10 countries.

Among his specific proposals: —All 10 countries should introduce, or strengthen, control of foreigners, particularly from Arab countries. This would require foreigners to obtain visas for journeys to the Common Market area.

—The 10 should require all aliens to register with the police. No one knows just how many Arabs or other Middle Eastern nationals are, in fact, in West Europe. Britain has about 20,000, Germany about 60,000, France hundreds of thousands. If Algerians are included.

—The 10 should require each new visitor from Arab and certain other countries to carry a statement from his own government certifying he is not known to be a terrorist.

2nd Major Victory Of Week

Quang Tri City Retaken

SAIGON (AP)—South Vietnamese marines seized control of the Citadel and the rest of the provincial capital of Quang Tri on Friday, U.S. officers reported. This gave government forces the second major victory this week.

U.S. officers said Monday the South Vietnamese 1st Division had lifted the threat to Hue, the old imperial capital, 30 miles south of Quang Tri, by smashing a North Vietnamese division.

The Citadel, heart of South Vietnam's northernmost province capital, is 50 acres of rubble, surrounded by a shattered, earth-filled wall that was built when Vietnam was an empire. It lies 19 miles below the demilitarized zone separating the Vietnams.

The city still is an easy target for heavy North Vietnamese guns hidden in mountains to the west and it was not certain whether the South Vietnamese would choose to hold it.

The Viet Cong claimed in a broadcast its forces still held the Citadel.

Quang Tri fell May 1, giving North Vietnam its biggest victory in the 5½-month offensive.

South Vietnamese soldiers fled southward, creating a panic that drove three-quarters of the population out of the next province capital, Hue. The 1st Division ended the threat to Hue by wrecking North Vietnam's 324B Division.

A Saigon command spokesman said Friday that North Vietnamese had withdrawn west of the Citadel to the banks of the flooded Thach Han River, where fighting was continuing.

Four days remained before the deadline set by President Nguyen Van Thieu for retaking Quang Tri and all other lost territory.

More than 1,600 North Vietnamese had been killed in the last week of stepped-up activity, the Saigon command claimed. Government losses were put at 136 killed, 20 missing and 687 wounded.

Allied air support was severely restricted Friday by heavy clouds, rain and wind kicked up by Typhoon Flossie.

U.S. officers noted that while the weather would hamper air support it also might deny the cornered enemy escape or reinforcement across the Thach Han River.

In the air war over North Vietnam, U.S. spokesmen reported a fifth consecutive day of heavy raids between Hanoi and China Thursday.

Pilots claimed they destroyed or damaged more than 30 buildings at a supply depot 46 miles northwest of Hanoi and cut North Vietnam's northwest rail line at two points about 45 miles from the Chinese border. More than 200 air strikes were flown.

The U.S. 7th Fleet, in a delayed report, confirmed that a Marine F4 Phantom shot down one MIG and damaged another Monday near Hanoi. It then was hit by a surface-to-air missile. Both crewmen ejected and were rescued, the Navy said.

Dellinger, Group Journey To Hanoi

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—A young wife, a gray-haired mother and four antiwar activists will fly into Hanoi Saturday on the last leg of a journey to bring three captured American pilots home from the North Vietnamese capital.

Arriving Friday in Vientiane on a trip that began Wednesday in New York, the group expressed hope that the releases would lead to freedom for other Americans taken prisoner in the Vietnam war.

David Dellinger, co-chairman of the Committee of Liaison with Families of Servicemen Detained in Vietnam, said he would ask North Vietnamese leaders to release more POWs but that it depended on the cessation of all American attacks against North Vietnam.

"We were told by the North Vietnamese in Paris that this trip is a signal of their willingness to release all POWs as soon as the Americans withdraw all troops and planes and put an end to all attacks," he said.

The group came here to obtain visas and board the regular weekly flight into Hanoi on the Soviet Aeroflot line.

The North Vietnamese announced Sept. 2 that they would release Navy Lt. (j.g.) Mark L. Gartley, 28; Navy Lt. (j.g.) Norris Charles, 27, and Air Force Maj. Edward K. Elias, 34.

For Minnie Lee Gartley of Dunedin, Fla., it has been a long journey. She began lobbying against the war a few months after her son's capture in 1968 and wore out a pair of shoes walking the marble floors of the Senate and House buildings and picketing the White House.

Olga Charles of San Diego has lost weight worrying and waiting since her husband was shot down 8½ months ago. But when she reached Vientiane she grinned and asked:

"Do you think the North Vietnamese will give us the honeymoon suite in Hanoi?"

Mrs. Charles is carrying a tape recording of the prayer that her 3-year-old daughter recites every night. The girl says: "Dear God, take care of my daddy and all the other men, and bring them home soon. Love and peace."

Mrs. Gartley does not feel that her speaking out against the war determined the release of her son. She plans to continue working to end the war.

"Just because Mark is coming home does not mean I will stop," she said. "I will keep right on with what I was doing — lobbying Congress."

Also traveling with the group are Cora Weiss, the other co-chairman of the committee of liaison; the Rev. William Sloane Coffin Jr., chaplain of Yale University, and Richard Falk, professor of international law at Princeton University.

WASHINGTON: Senate investigators say that the knowledge of bombing raids over North Vietnam last winter in violation of President Nixon's orders seems to have been widespread in the 7th Air Force in Southeast Asia. Called to testify before the Senate Armed Services Committee was Col. Charles Gabriel, a wing commander in the 7th. Here, he is greeted by committee chairman, Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss. (left). Panel Ponders Policy On Automobile Prices

WASHINGTON (AP)—Price Commission Chairman C. Jackson Grayson Jr. said Friday the agency will consider new policy questions on automobile pricing, including whether style changes should be disallowed as legitimate costs.

As public hearings on pricing of 1973 models came to a close, Grayson told newsmen that the policy questions raised at the sessions would be taken up before a decision is made on proposed price increases by Chrysler Corp. and American Motors Corp.

Grayson said a decision will be made "as rapidly as possible. We hope by around the middle of October."

The chairman also did not commit himself on whether another round of public hearings will be called when the leaders in the automobile industry, General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co., resubmit their price-increase requests as they say they will.

Consumer advocate Ralph Nader urged the commission

Thursday to call more public hearings when GM and Ford return with their proposals.

"We're not answering in advance whether we will or not," Grayson said. "The companies did not commit themselves. We're not committing ourselves in advance."

While the commission already had the basic price and cost information that is needed to make a decision, Grayson said the public hearings had brought up new issues that needed to be considered.

He first mentioned the cost of style changes. Nader, for one, said the commission should consider money the auto industry has put into style changes over the years without making cars safer.

Grayson said the commission would also look into the reliability of productivity figures put out by the government and try to determine if auto makers have reduced quality in their 1973 models.

The whole area of automobile warranties will be examined closely, he indicated. Testimony revealed that companies could make effective price increases by reducing warranty coverage without the consumer noticing.

Chrysler and American are seeking price increases to cover the cost of installing federally mandated safety and pollution equipment. The amount of those costs came under question during the hearing, the companies said they were understated and Nader said they were overstated.

Chrysler is seeking an increase of about $91 per car and American, about $75. American is asking an additional $75 for other economic costs.

The commission rejected proposed price boosts by GM and Ford on grounds that the two companies would violate restrictions on profit margins during the current quarter which ends Sept. 30. Both companies dispute the commission's ruling and say they will be ready to resubmit their requests after Oct. 1.

Suggests Voluntary Wage, Price Controls On Economy

PORTLAND, Maine (AP)—Sen. George McGovern proposed Friday that President Nixon's wage-price controls be replaced by voluntary guidelines backed by presidential pressure.

"We must put price stability ahead of special privilege and excess profit," McGovern said in an address to labor leaders and his own supporters. The speech was his most detailed statement to date of how he hopes to hold down inflation if he wins in November.

In his Portland speech, McGovern contended that it is the Nixon administration's economic policies, rather than his own proposals, that are radical, unfair and unsound.

Noting that Nixon had declared in 1968 that control of inflation was his No. 1 domestic priority, the Democratic nominee said "he has struck out completely" in dealing with it. He said wholesale prices have increased in the past three months faster than at any such period since 1951.

In outlining his answer to what he termed "Republican economic radicalism," McGovern repeated his view that creation of jobs for all who want them should be the government's No. 1 domestic goal.

To combat inflation, he outlined a five-step program including:

—Voluntary guidelines to restrain prices and not just wages, such as were employed by the Kennedy and Johnson administrations.

—Profit guidelines to more accurately reflect actual costs. He said that would reverse what he called a "Price Commission practice" of permitting firms to juggle their cost estimates so that they can increase their prices.

—Focusing on "these great concentrations of economic and market power" that he said are the prime contributors to inflation.

—Establishment of a White House Review Board, composed of non-governmental representatives from labor, business and consumers, that would advise the President and "marshal and focus public opinion against excessive price and wage increases."

—Presidential power "to reverse flagrant violations of the new guidelines," but only after consultation with the Review Board.

The McGovern anti-inflation approach was described by one aide as "lawbusting with teeth," an extension of former President Lyndon B. Johnson's program to use presidential pressure to "jawbone" unions and management to hold down wage and price increases.

UN Assembly Faces New Tests Of Effectiveness

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
The United Nations General Assembly begins its 27th session next week facing new tests of its effectiveness as an instrument of world peace. Among the uncertainties is the fact that its new secretary general, Kurt Waldheim of Austria, is new and untested. A United States move to reduce its contribution from 31.52 per cent to 25 per cent has led to speculation that U.S. interest in the international body is declining along with its financial support.

From the beginning of the session for the first time China will be participating in all U.N. bodies, certain to clash with the Soviet Union on such questions as nuclear testing, Bangladesh, the seabed and world disarmament. As with other general secretaries before him, one of Waldheim's chief jobs will be to get along with the super powers, the task complicated now by China's entry on the U.N. scene. To maintain any kind of effectiveness, Waldheim must get along with the United States, the Soviet Union and China.

Off to Bad Start
Waldheim got off to a bad start with President Nixon when by implication, he appeared to be accusing the United States of bombing the dikes in North Vietnam. The resulting ill-will now seems to have been erased or at least covered over.

A first real test for the new secretary general may come when the assembly takes up the question of terrorism.

Waldheim has indicated he hopes to act positively in his job, and a first step has been his independent action in placing terrorism on the assembly's agenda as an "important and urgent matter."

The U.N., he has declared, cannot remain "a mute spectator" to the acts of terrorism in the world.

Since acts of terrorism spread across boundaries and are not confined to any one or two nations, the subject seems particularly fitting to a body with world peace as its first objective.

Although the secretary general acted independently, he is known to have consulted a number of nations and presumably received strong support from the United States.

U.S. Indicates Change
The U.S. already had indicated a change of policy when earlier this month, it used its veto for only the second time in U.N. history in the Security Council.

It vetoed a resolution calling for an immediate halt to military operations in the Middle East because it failed to mention the terrorist strikes that led to Israeli action against Syria and Lebanon.

In the past the United States simply has abstained from resolutions accusing Israel of acts of aggression.

France and Britain also have indicated a wish for a stronger U.N. position against terrorism and a committee of the enlarged European Common Market has been instructed to work out a common position.

But the Soviet Union already is grumbling. Privately, its delegation has declared debate on terrorism a waste of time.

Actually, Soviet opposition may spring from the fact that a general debate on terrorism could open many doors, including questions concerning Soviet treatment of Jews wishing to leave the Soviet Union for Israel.

We Are Gaining In Pollution Job

Cooperation between industry and government is making slow but steady progress against solid waste pollution.

According to the National Center for Resource Recovery in Washington, programs sponsored by industry are giving strong impetus to the recycling movement throughout the country. Substantial increases have been reported in the volume of steel, glass, paper and aluminum recovered from municipal trash for reconversion into basic materials or other uses that conserve natural resources.

Latest figures show that 17 cities alone are salvaging used steel, or "tin" cans by magnetic separation at the rate of 2.5 billion a year.

Admittedly, this is only a small fraction of the 60 billion cans produced annually, but indications are that salvage operations will be accelerated in the years ahead.

R. Thomas Willson, senior vice-president of the American Iron and Steel Institute, estimates that municipal and regional systems will be recovering more than five billion steel cans annually by 1975. Already, some cities employing magnetic separation systems are reclaiming 36 per cent of all used steel cans in their localities.

Similar progress is noted in the glass container industry, where some 900 million of the 36 billion bottles and jars in household refuse were retrieved last year. This figure will be doubled when just one new plant, recently commissioned in North Hempstead, N.Y., goes into operation.

Even so, most communities now rely on sanitary landfills to get rid of their solid waste and will continue to rely on them for the foreseeable future. Suitable sites are becoming increasingly expensive and remote from centers of population, and are coming under increasing fire from environmentalists.

Of the 12,000 land disposal sites—more commonly known as garbage dumps—the Public Health Service has declared 94 per cent of them "unacceptable and representing disease potential, threat of pollution and land blight."

Now there's professional help available here, too.

National Environmental Controls, Inc. (NEC), one of the nation's oldest and largest companies in this field, recently announced formation of "the first total pollution and ecology advisory and management program" to aid states, municipalities and private contractors with the problems of landfill operations.

These problems include the depletion of dumping sites, failure to meet ecological and pollution standards, equipment selection and maintenance, computerization of services, labor disputes and coordination among neighboring communities.

NEC presently operates the largest private landfill site in the country, in Jefferson Parish, La., which has been called a showplace for the industry.

Nonsalvageable refuse is shredded, milled and compacted and then dumped in trenches scooped out by bulldozers. It is then covered with seven or eight feet of earth. Over a period of about 25 years, with a little help from Mother Nature, it is converted into normal soil.

Experts predict that by the year 2000, solid waste disposal will surpass crime, national defense and civil rights as the nation's No. 1 problem. It is a massive and complex problem, with no one solution or one best way.

It is encouraging to report, however, that solutions—plural—are being developed. If there is cause for concern, there is also cause for optimism.

A GLANCE Into The Past

10 YEARS AGO

Rev. and Mrs. Percy Clark have accepted positions in the state hospital in Fulton, Mo., and have left Carrollton, where he was pastor of the Presbyterian church for the past three years.

Many from Jacksonville and vicinity are attending the Calhoun County Apple Festival, which opened Thursday and closes Sunday.

A Cub Scout pack is being organized under the sponsorship of the Jacksonville Knights of Columbus.

20 YEARS AGO

Jim Buckley defeated Homer Mitchell 3-2 to win the city golf championship Sunday. The body of Col. John R. Robertson, former cashier of the Jacksonville National bank, has arrived here. He died in San Diego Thursday night at the age of 80.

There are 5,237 students enrolled in the schools of Morgan county. This is an increase of 141 over last year.

50 YEARS AGO

Motor travelers to the state fair will find the Old State Road in wonderful condition in Sangamon county, all of it having been graded and oiled. The Morgan county section is very dusty.

As someone has said, we soon got back to normalcy in this country—another Balkan war is imminent.

We hear constantly of the big profits in the manufacture and sale of "white mules," but yet several of the persons arrested in recent raids remain in the county jail, unable to pay their fines.

75 YEARS AGO

The yellow fever refugees are flocking into Chicago and St. Louis. New Orleans and cities as far north as Jackson, Miss., have been left in custody of the poor people, as all the rich folks have fled.

Col. W. J. Wyatt, of Franklin, a prominent figure in the history of our county for fifty years as a patriot and gentleman, visited the city Thursday and was pleasantly greeted by his friends.

Father Crowe has recently purchased a handsome team of black driving horses and appeared on the streets for the first time with them yesterday. The animals are very stylish, and look speedy.

100 YEARS AGO

The Republican majority in Maine on the head of the ticket is 16,400. This is not much of a showing, but it seems to have a very dampening effect upon the spirits of the liberals.

Rev. Mr. Savage, who for several weeks past, has been enjoying his vacation, returned home last week and Sunday morning occupied his pulpit in the Congregational church. The gas refused to burn, and consequently there was no evening service.

To the Editor:

Why is it that we hear and read about the desirability of the manager-council form of government, and just that?

An article in the Sept. 7th paper listed 79 cities which are using the council-manager plan. What is not being said is that most of these cities have assistant managers, municipal planners and full-time attorneys. To me, it would seem that this form of government would be considerably more costly to the taxpayers. With a change to this government, could our taxes be kept at the present level?

We have an opportunity to change eight aldermen and the mayor in April. Why change the whole system just because there are a few city officials that do not please everybody? Can the city, and can we, the taxpayers, afford to change to the council-manager form of city government?

An article in the Sept. 12th paper stated that under the proposed new salary program now tabled for future council action, the increase under the present system would amount to about $9,200. The mayor's salary is now $10,000; the 14 aldermen each receive $600 a year; and the attorney $7,200—a total of $25,600.

Our population is around 21,000—Carbondale's population is 22,816—Salaries there are: manager, $20,000; assistant manager, $11,400; municipal planner, $14,600; municipal attorney $15,704—total $61,584 and that's not counting the part-time mayor and four aldermen. That is a difference of $35,984.

I know some people would like us to believe that we won't have to have assistant managers and so on, even though other cities do. Can we, the taxpayers, be sure?

Munich Tragedy Taint Among Us

By BRUCE BISSOT
WASHINGTON (NEA) — Reacting to the brutal murder in Munich of members of the Israeli Olympic team, a man in this capital asked: "Were any Americans hurt?"

In the strict physical sense, the answer is of course "no." But in a broader sense, the response has to be "yes," not only for all Americans but for everybody in the world.

What the Arab "Black September" fanatics did was a victory for terrorism, even though they failed in their attempt to win release of 200 other terrorists imprisoned in Israel. They did kill 11 innocent Israeli athletes, and they did briefly disrupt great games intended to symbolize international brotherhood.

Yet the real lesson in this horror will be missed if the world does not go beyond mourning the dead and decrying the terrorism. What most needs to be deplored is that this was another victory for irreconcilability in a world where, these days, it is too often cruelly enshrined as a virtue.

That irreconcilability and separatism should be sought and even hailed anywhere today is incredible, given a globe shrunken in time and distance. Separatism is a primitive human condition, excusable only in the tribal isolation of long forgotten centuries.

Only people who have lost their way, or have never found it, could mistake this dead-end for a path to rewarding life. Still, that's the route being taken by extremists in the Middle East, in shattered Northern Ireland, in parts of Asia, Africa, Latin America.

Most Americans perhaps would like to believe that they are free of this separatist madness. But the fact is that their political and social life is increasingly tainted by it.

Explicit and inherent in the very nature of effective democracy is the idea that men of diverging characteristics and viewpoints can accommodate to each other. Reconciliation and compromise are at the core of government rooted in the popular will.

Today, however, compromise is scorned in some quarters as a departure from purity, as a spineless yielding to expediency. The "nonnegotiable demand" is perceived by some as a mark of steadfast courage, when in truth its spirit is autocratic and antidemocratic.

Black Americans, properly disturbed by the stubborn lingering of discrimination and disadvantage, have seen their extremists trumpet separatism as a path to dignity and well-being in a nation still nine-tenths white.

Many young people, heartened by force of numbers, have sought by varied means — dress, speech, conduct and attitude — to separate themselves from American society. Those who "live" in the streets are the most visible sign of this chosen isolation.

The present-day "politics of demonstration," taken to its extremes in the use of force and disruption, bears real kinship to the terror of Munich. The weapons, whether lightly applied in vandalism and human harassment, or heavily by machine gun, are extortion and blackmail. Again, the spirit and the act itself are deliberately anti-Democratic.

When separatism is enthroned and accommodation is reviled, groups are thrust into costly, enduring warfare. The society, says author Irving Kristol, is "like a collection of mobs." Munich is a stark warning of what that can mean.

Ann Landers:

Are Hair Transplants Worth Time, Money, Pain?

Dear Ann Landers: I've heard a lot about bald-headed men who are going in for transplants and some of them are not very happy about the results. The gentleman I am seeing is very handsome without hair and I don't mind his baldness in the least. He seems to have the idea that if he had a full head of hair he would look younger. (He is 11 years my senior which bothers him, but not me.)

Will you please tell me whether hair transplants work out well and if they are worth the time and money and pain? I hear there is a good deal of all three involved in the procedure. Thank you—West Coaster

Dear West: Some men have had excellent results with the transplanting of hair; others have been disappointed—and still others will tell you they deeply regret having tried it. Because transplanting is an office procedure any physician who wants to attempt it can do so.

This means there is a good deal of experimenting going on, and some of the experiments are dismal failures.

Not all transplanted hair plugs grow. If too many plugs fail, one sees empty spaces. They cannot be covered up and the head is an unsightly mess. If the doctor lacks surgical skills and tries for an extreme effect he might produce a hairline that is unreal in appearance or even grotesque.

My advice to anyone who is interested is this: Talk with someone who has had a successful transplant. Learn the name of his doctor. Make an appointment for a consultation. (Not all men are "good candidates.") If you decide to do it, lots of luck.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a widow, age 60, and my sister died two years ago. Her four children are now 12, 14, 18 and 22. Her husband had a woman friend on the side for many years. Everyone knew about it. He wasn't even subtle. A month before my sister died I moved into their home and took care of her and the children. Her husband came and went like a boarder.

Now the oldest son is getting married and I thought for sure I would take the place of his mother in the ceremony. I was informed yesterday that I will be seated with the rest of the guests and my brother-in-law's "whaddayacallit" will be seated in the mother's place.

The bride's family is planning a big reception and a church wedding with all the trimmings. Should I say nothing and let the harlot take over? Thanks for your advice.—Just Sick About It

Dear J.S.A.I.: Go as a guest and say nothing. The parents of the bride undoubtedly discussed the plans with the groom and his father and they made the decision.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a young woman, 22, and I work in a large office. There are several men in the place but no one that interests me. So I eat lunch and go shopping with the girls, who are very nice.

The problem: A woman (about ten years older than I am) has been very friendly. In fact, too friendly. I suspect she may be a lesbian. She has no masculine traits but she behaves toward me as if she were a fella. I'd hate to do her an injustice but she makes me uncomfortable. What should I do? —????

Dear ?????: Why spend with anyone who makes you uncomfortable—for any reason. If you are uneasy in this woman's presence, cool it.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The song "Dixie" was first introduced by Daniel Emmett at Mechanics Hall in New York City, April 4, 1859. The World Almanac says, "He wrote the song for Bryant's Minstrels and performed it as a black-faced singer. Emmett allegedly wrote the song after an actor who had toured the South lamented New York's weather and said, 'I wish I were down in Dixie.'"

YOUR BIRTHDAY AND HOROSCOPE

By STELLA WILDER

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 16—Born today, you are an adventurous person who yearns for the next experience in life even before the last one is completed. Never afraid to try your hand at something new and different, you may need to be warned against taking unnecessary risks, but you never need to be urged to attempt to pit your best against any challenge which may come your way. Your ability to adapt to almost any situation or circumstance makes it possible for you to experience even the unpleasant without any undue disappointment or drawbacks.

The unfamiliar invariably provides you with the stimulus you need to make life both interesting and exciting. On the other hand, there is much about the usual and the customary that appeals to you when it comes to that single facet of your existence which very probably means more to you than all others: your home life. Much as you enjoy and even need change and challenge, you also need and enjoy the old standbys of love, marriage, children, and so on.

One who customarily sees things through regardless of how difficult it may be at times, you have little patience with those who quit when the going gets tough, regardless of what their action may mean to those who have been working with them. You give a great deal of yourself to others in terms of duty and responsibility and, though often disappointed in it, you expect others to do the same.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Sunday, September 17
VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—Keep your eyes upon your goal even as you may be forced to slow your advance upon it. A good day for reconsidering your approach.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—The Libra with the temperament typical of his sign should be able to make better use of this day than most. Early-day moments are precious.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)—Take care that others do not take advantage of your situation. Morning worship should set you off in the right direction spiritually.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)—A happy morning with young children makes this day worthwhile regardless of what happens during afternoon or evening hours.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—Don't attempt to force your own notions upon others. These are days when you must remain independent and allow others the same privilege.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—Knowing what you want out of life is not the same as getting it. Prepare early in the day for difficulties which may occur at evening.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 21)—Negative responses given, you by those whose advice you've recently sought may not be well thought out. Ask again—but rephrase your question.

ARIES (March 22-April 20)—An unfamiliar situation on the home front makes things a little difficult for younger family members. Be of what help you can.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—A day which may well cause you concern over your immediate future. Church attendance in morning is a must for the Taurus with promises to keep.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)—Take care that haste does not cause you to be lacking in discernment. Choose your companions from among those who will not hesitate to back you up.

CANCER (June 22-July 23)—Happy is the Cancer who can realize a simple ideal this morning. Sunday activities takes on special meaning when children have a part in them.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—Temperament can make or break this day insofar as personal relationships are concerned. Involve yourself at your own risk in the business of others.

LOCAL PILOTS TO DECORATE STAGE FOR CONCERT

As the club president, Mrs. Marion Thorn, presided at the business meeting, plans were finalized for United States Marine Band Day Saturday, September 16th. Among decisions made was the vote to donate four evening concert tickets to the Ambucs for their auction September 15th. The Pilots built and decorated the stage at the gymnasium under the direction of house committee chairman, Mrs. Edward Morrison. They were assisted by their Co-Pilots and Jack DeOrellas.

Appreciation was expressed by everyone present for the splendid cooperation and support the club has received from the community in bringing the Marine Band to the city. Recognition of the business firms and organizations which have been helpful in preparation for this big event will be publicized at a later date.

Tickets for both concerts will be available at the door Saturday, September 16th.

OSCAR FOR STEEL

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's multibillion-dollar steel industry has its version of film-dom's Oscar awards. Called the Design in Steel Award Program, the contest is open to all architects, engineers, designers and artists who work in steel.

In the past, such diverse items as dump trucks and dishwashers, subway cars and summer houses have won awards. This year, a panel of 12 noted experts will judge the entries.

BOOK SAYS ATTICA RIOT EXECUTED BY REBEL INMATES

NEW YORK (AP)—State Correction Commissioner Russell G. Oswald says in a soon-to-be-published book that he believes the bloody Attica prison riot was planned and executed by skilled, revolutionary inmates.

Oswald's view is directly opposite to the finding of the State Special Commission on Attica which concluded in its final report that the uprising which cost 43 lives was spontaneous.

In the book, "Attica—My Story," to be published Oct. 13, Oswald states that the rebels fought the swiftest and most skillful revolutionary offensive since the 1968 Tet attack in South Vietnam.

"They had manufactured literally hundreds of weapons (such as homemade knives, bludgeons, etc.) during what must have been weeks of supervised imprisonment. They had worked out an attack plan while in captivity under the eyes of our corrections personnel."

Oswald describes rebel inmate leaders in such terms as "radical" and "Marxist-Leninist" and suggests that their motive was not prison reform but an attempt to break down the prison system and stir a revolution in the larger society.

Ten County Area Tourism Group Meets In City

Mrs. Thelma Bacon Pinson, chairman of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce Committee on tourism, hosted a meeting of the directors of the Lincoln County Tourism Promotion Council at the Beef and the Bird restaurant on Thursday evening, September 14.

This group represented counties of Morgan, Scott, Cass, Logan, Menard, Christian, Macoupin, Greene, Mason, and Sangamon. The directors, each representing a county tourism association, dealt with the business of how best to attract tourism dollars to the entire area.

In absence of the council president, Lacey Brooks, the presiding officer was Loren Proefrock. Other business was the consideration of productive forms of advertising, and participation in a coming outdoor travel show, to be held in St. Louis.

Present to advise the members was Earl Searcy, Director of the Tourism Division of the Illinois State Department, an agency which helps finance publicity efforts of local and regional tourism councils.

The meeting was especially informative to Morgan County members, Mrs. Pinson and Chester Thomason, who are presently engaged in forming a Morgan County Council on Tourism. They will present their information at the next meeting of the local council which will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday, September 20, at the Illinois Power Co. auditorium.

All persons in Morgan County are invited to be present at the Wednesday, September 20th meeting to assist in developing tourism so that Morgan County may profit economically from advertising the many important show places and attractions which exist here.

Corpsmen To Hear Band Here Today

A busful of United States Marines will be checking into the Holiday Inn some time Saturday morning in preparation for their matinee and evening concerts at Jacksonville High School Gym. Promptly at noon the instrument truck will draw up in front of the gym to be unloaded under the supervision of the tour manager, Robert Williams of Washington, D.C. The appearances of this colorful and talented group of musicians is being sponsored by the Pilot club of Jacksonville for the benefit of its community projects, the main one of which is Trees for Jacksonville.

At the September business meeting of the club, held in the community room of Illinois Power Company Wednesday, September 13, Mrs. C. Y. Rowe announced that added color would be in evidence at the eight o'clock concert with the presence of five uniformed Marines from out of the city. From Springfield will come 1st Sgt. Wiley E. Sheets, Staff Sgt. Ralph L. Buchanan, Staff Sgt. Philip Granville, all accompanied by their wives, and Private First Class Anthony Bishop fresh from boot camp after winning highest honors there. Since the fifth Marine is a woman, Jacksonville Pilots are looking forward with special interest to greeting Staff Sgt. Esther Peters of St. Louis.

Order Psychiatric Care For Accused Hijacker

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Donald Lewis Coleman, accused of the abortive hijacking of an American Airlines jet last Dec. 26, was ordered Friday to undergo extensive psychiatric treatment at a federal prison facility.

U.S. District Court Judge Willis W. Ritter put off formally sentencing Coleman, 29, until prison hospital attendants determine the blond Downers Grove, Ill., man "no longer suffers from this problem."

The problem referred to by Ritter was underscored by a trio of psychiatrists who testified on Friday that Coleman was in a manic-depressive trance at the time he took over the plane. Dr. Jack Tedrow, a Salt Lake City psychiatrist, said at the time of the hijacking Coleman "was unable to commit a crime."

Earlier testimony showed Coleman possessed a knife and plastic gun and told airline personnel that a bomb would go off if the plane descended to a certain altitude. Coleman boarded the flight in Chicago, testimony showed, after taking out large amounts of insurance. Newspaper accounts of other hijackings were found in Coleman's apartment following his arrest in Salt Lake City.

The doctors told Ritter that Coleman had suffered two previous seizures of manic depression, neither of which were violent. Usually, they said, Coleman had illusions of greatness—cashing checks for large sums, boasting of alleged important positions in the business world. They agreed he needed medical treatment, but advised against imprisoning Coleman.

As Ritter was leading up to his announcement of hospitalizing Coleman, the convict's mother, Mrs. Clarence Coleman, yelled at the judge: "His brother had a mental breakdown last fall. How much can we take?" Then she barked: "Why don't you accept the testimony of experts whom you have hired?"

Ritter didn't say to which federal institution Coleman would be sent.

Tigers Keep Pace, Edge Brewers 2-1

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Norm Cash delivered a run-scoring single with two out in the ninth inning as the Detroit Tigers nipped the Milwaukee Brewers 2-1 Friday night and kept pace in baseball's hot American League East pennant race.

The Tigers remained in second place, one game behind the front-running Boston Red Sox, who earlier defeated the Cleveland Indians 4-3.

Dick McAuliffe led off the Tiger ninth with a walk and was sacrificed to second base. Gates Brown was walked intentionally before Bill Freehan filed out for the second out.

Cash then singled down the right field line to deliver McAuliffe with the winning run. Detroit's Mickey Lolich started the third inning by walking Rick Auerbach, who was sacrificed to second by pitcher Jim Lonborg. Auerbach went to third on an infield out and scored Milwaukee's run on a ground ball.

Detroit added a run in the eighth. Detroit 000 000 011-2 3 0 Milwaukee 001 000 000-1 5 0 Lolich, Zachary (8), Scherman (8) and Freehan, Lonborg and Rodriguez, W-Scherman, 7-3; L-Lonborg, 12-11.

Carlton Has 24 As Phils Win By 5-3

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A towering home run by Greg Luzinski and three runs batted in by Willie Montanez helped a struggling Steve Carlton to his 24th victory Friday night as the Philadelphia Phillies beat the Montreal Expos 5-3 in National League baseball.

The score was tied 3-3 in the sixth with two out when Luzinski unloaded his 15th home run, a towering smash over the 408-foot sign in center field.

The Phillies added an insurance run in the seventh when they loaded the bases on a single and two walks and Montanez walked to force in the tally. Montanez had singled home two in the third.

Carlton allowed 10 hits, struck out three and walked three. The Expos got at least one hit off the hard-throwing left hander in every inning but the sixth and ninth.

The Montreal loser was Mike Torrez, 16-10, who had beaten the Phillies three times this year and held a career 7-0 mark against them.

Montreal 012 000 000-3 10 0 Philad 012 001 10x-5 8 2 Torrez, Marshall (7) and Bocabella; Carlton and Bateman. W-Carlton, 24-9. L-Torrez, 16-10. HRs-Montreal, Laboy (3); Philadelphia, Luzinski (15).

Season Openers Set For Today In Illinois

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. Illinois College football teams swing into action Saturday with four games on tap in the College Conference of Illinois-Wisconsin headed by defending champion Carthage.

Carthage, the first team to win three straight undisputed CCW titles, will be shooting for another when the Redmen invade North Park.

Three other CCW games are on tap with Illinois Wesleyan at Carroll, North Central at Augustana and Milliken at Elmhurst. Wheaton opens its season next Saturday.

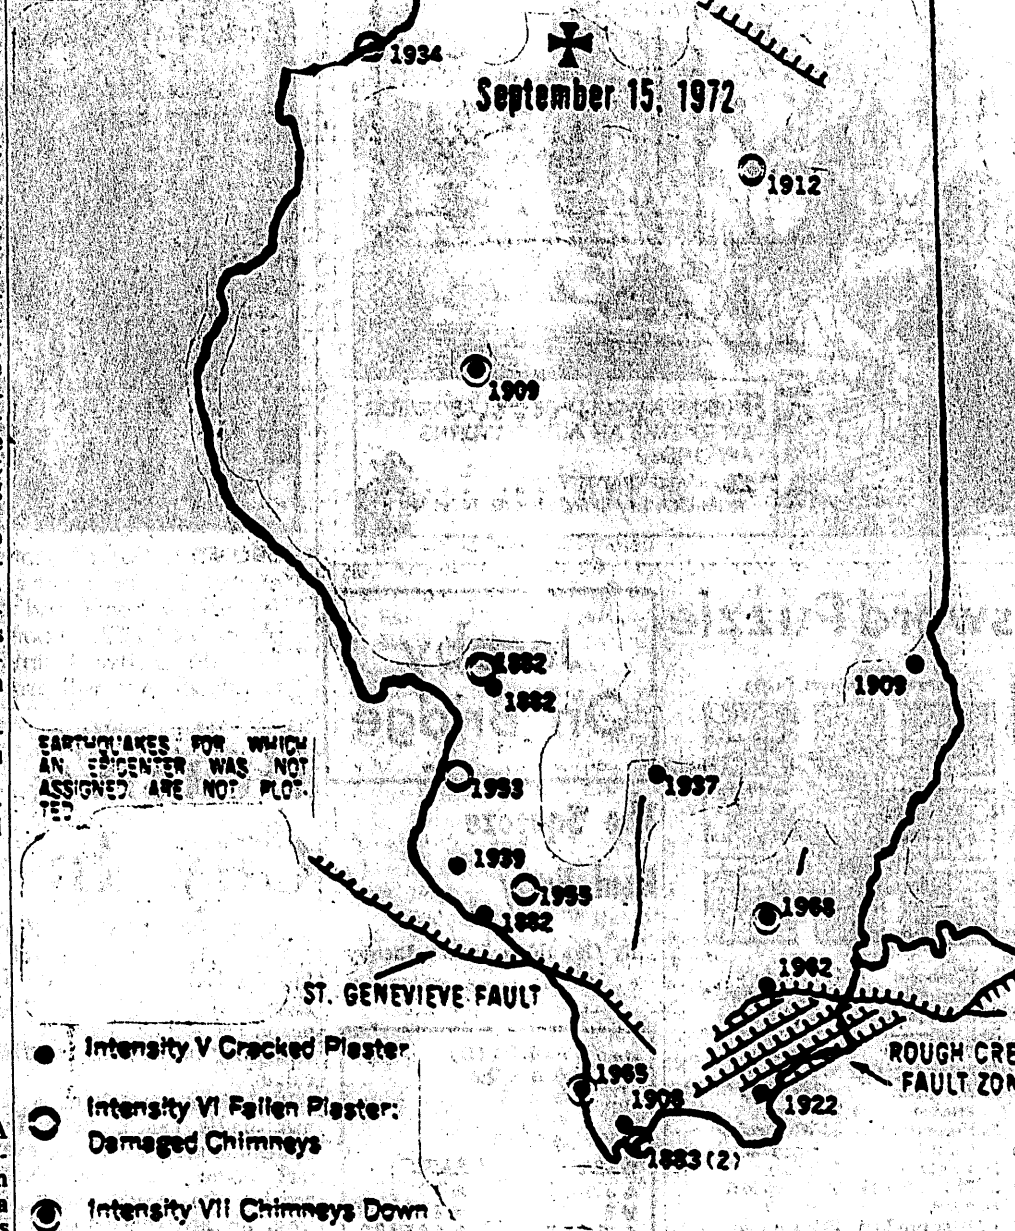

Carthage is an overwhelming favorite to repeat with Augustana given an outside chance of overthrowing Carthage. Illinois Wesleyan is the third choice in the conference.

Six other Illinois college teams will be in action Saturday. Knox is at Illinois College and Monmouth will be at Olivet. Illinois Benedictine travels to Dubuque, Northern Iowa is at Illinois State, Indiana State invades Eastern Illinois and Western Illinois is home to Augustana of South Dakota.

ROODHOUSE ROTARY MEETS SEPTEMBER 13. Roodhouse Rotary club met at the American Legion Home Wednesday night, Sept. 13, for the weekly dinner session with President Joe Lawson presiding. Invocation was given by Russell Meece and the dinner was served by Mrs. Doris McEvers and Mrs. Mildred Dawdy. Following the supper the men adjourned to the uptown city park for their annual work night.

SIGNIFICANT ILLINOIS EARTHQUAKES

BOULDER, COLO.—The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration in Boulder released this chart Friday of the site of an earthquake that occurred before dawn in Illinois.

Osteen And Dodgers Top Houston 4-2

HOUSTON (AP)—Claude Osteen tossed a four-hitter and the Los Angeles Dodgers trimmed Houston 4-2 Friday night to move within four games of the second-place Astros in baseball's National League West.

Osteen, winning his 17th game, was tagged for Bob Watson's 14th homer in the second inning following a single by Lee May.

But the veteran left-hander allowed just two more hits after that, while the Dodgers were pinning the defeat on Don Wilson, 12-9.

Los Angeles' first run was unearned. Willie Davis reached base on Tommy Helms' two-out error and came around on hits by Wes Parker and Willie Crawford.

The Dodgers tallied twice in the sixth, an inning in which Bobby Valentine apparently singled to left for the tying run, only to have Watson, the left fielder, throw out Parker at third base on a forceout, eliminating Valentine's hit.

Prior to Valentine's blip to left, the Dodgers had loaded the bases on hits by Davis and Parker and a walk to Willie Crawford.

Lost Contests Could Be Part Of Title Story

NEW YORK (AP)—Remember way back in April when the club owners dismissed games lost in the baseball strike?

Those lost games could be a vital—and controversial—part of both American League races come October.

Contenders in each of the East and West divisions don't have uniform schedules as a result of the decision and could conceivably lose a pennant because of it.

In the red-hot East race, the Detroit Tigers play 156 games, the New York Yankees and Boston Red Sox, 155 and the Baltimore Orioles, 154.

In the West, the Oakland A's play 155 games and the Chicago White Sox, 154. Making things all the more interesting is the probable, down-to-the-wire finish in the East, where no more than three games have separated the top four clubs for weeks.

Of course, there are several possibilities, but consider the backlash in New York. Boston and Baltimore if the teams in the East all wound up with the same number of losses. Then that division race would

State Earthquake Measures 4.5 On Richter Scale

CHICAGO (AP)—An earthquake registering 4.5 to 4.75 on the Richter Scale that shook parts of five Midwest states early Friday was centered near the town of Dixon, Ill., the National Earthquake Information Center reported.

No serious damage was reported from the tremor, felt in Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana, Michigan and Iowa for a 30-second period at 12:22 a.m.

Police in Dixon, in rural Lee County, reported no damage from the tremor, largest in the Midwest since a Nov. 9, 1968 tremor along the Madrid Fault, named for the town of New Madrid, Mo. That quake measured 5.3 on the 10-point Richter Scale of earthquake magnitude.

A spokesman at the earthquake information center in Boulder, Colo., said the nearest known fault to Friday's quake is the Sandwich Fault, which runs southwest from Joliet to central Illinois.

Ramos' Weight Official Set For Key Bout

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Unpredictable Mando Ramos lived up to his personal prognostication Friday that he would have no trouble making the 135-pound weight for his bout.

Ramos, 23, of Long Beach, Calif., weighed in at 134½ even though he hadn't sparred since Sunday.

He has trained diligently for his defense of the World Boxing Council championship and vowed there would be no repetition of his weight troubles in his title match against Spain's Pedro Carrasco. In that one, Ramos had to shed pounds on the day of the fight and appeared sluggish.

Carmona, 27, of Mexico City, weighed in at 134. Ramos put a 34-4 record on the line against the Mexican who has a 40-8-1 record with 38 of his victories by knockout.

Hijackers, Swedes Exchange Prisoners

MALMOE, Sweden (AP)—Three Yugoslavs hijacked a domestic jetliner with 90 persons aboard Friday and using threats of a Munich-style massacre forced Sweden to release seven Croatian separatists from prison.

Authorities began exchanging the prisoners for the passengers at the airport here early Saturday after long negotiations with the hijackers.

The passengers had spent more than 10 hours in the commandeered DC9 after it was forced to land at this southern Swedish city. Authorities bargained with the hijackers by radio while military aircraft brought the prisoners from four jails around the country. Five passengers were released for health reasons during the long wait.

Wm. J. Casler Dies Friday; Funeral Monday

William J. Casler, resident of Jacksonville since 1931 and owner of Casler and Associates in this city, died at 6:15 a.m. Friday at Passavant hospital where he had been a patient since Sept. 4th. Mr. Casler was 71 years of age.

He was born in Louisville, Kentucky, Sept. 6, 1901, the only child of William J. and Anna Justa Casler. He was married to Vivian Cain July 2, 1927. She survives with two sons, W. Richard Casler, Jacksonville and Paul J. Casler of Normal. There are six grandchildren, Michelle, Judde, Gigi, Curtis, Cathy and Valerie.

Mr. Casler graduated from University of Illinois in 1923 as a civil engineer. He came to Jacksonville under employ of Morgan County Highway department and when he re-entered military service in World War Two he was Superintendent of Morgan County Highways. Returning to Jacksonville in 1945, he and Kenneth Stapleton formed the firm of Casler and Stapleton. Upon the death of Mr. Stapleton, the firm became Casler and Associates.

Mr. Casler was a member of the Illinois and National Societies of Professional Engineers and of the Registered Professional Engineers and Registered Land Surveyors. He was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Other memberships included the Elks club, American Legion Post 279 and Knights of Columbus. He was a member of Church of Our Saviour, and had served as a trustee for Our Saviour's church. During World War One he served with the U.S. Navy and in World War Two retired with rank of Major, U.S. Army.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Monday at Church of Our Saviour with interment to be in Calvary cemetery.

Friends may call at Williamson Funeral Home after 1 p.m. Saturday. Prayer service will be at the funeral home at 8 p.m. Sunday.

Those wishing are asked to consider memorials to the building fund for Our Saviour's church.

Clyde Baird Of Winchester Dies Friday

Clyde Baird of Winchester died at 5:55 a.m. Friday at Norris hospital. Mr. Baird, 81, had been a patient since August 1st. He was born in Greene County December 9, 1890, son of Rev. David and Ollie Mundy Baird. His first wife, Faye Quinn, died in 1961. He married Verna Matthew Leib in July of 1963 at Winchester.

Mrs. Baird survives with the following stepchildren: Mrs. Bill (Cleo) Klotz of Huntington Beach, California; Mrs. Paul (Loie) Chesler of Memphis, Tennessee; and Captain James M. Leib of Arlington, Ill. Eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren survive.

One sister, Mrs. William (Dana) Bodicks of Glen Ellyn and one brother, D. D. Baird of Carlinville, also survive. A brother and sister preceded in death.

The deceased was a member of the Riggison United Methodist church and the Pioneer Lodge 70, I.O.O.F. He served as Scott county commissioner 1963 to 1966 and as Scott county bailiff from 1966 to June of 1972.

Mr. Baird was a retired farmer. Funeral services will be at 3 p.m. Sunday at the Concord Funeral Home at Winchester with the Rev. Harry Evans officiating. Burial will be in the Winchester City cemetery.

Friends may call after 2 p.m. today at the funeral home. The family will meet friends there this evening from 7-9. Odd-fellow services will be held at 8:30 tonight at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, the family asks for consideration of memorials to the cancer fund.

DRIVERS TICKETED AFTER COLLISIONS

City policemen ticketed two drivers Friday after investigating two accidents about noon.

Maurice A. Craig, 64, of 509 Woodland Place, was cited for failure to yield the right of way after a collision at the intersection of Mound Ave. and Woodland about 11:30 a.m.

Police said Craig was southbound on Woodland when his auto struck an eastbound car driven by Mary E. Wilson, 17, of R.R. 1 Jacksonville.

The Wilson car then slid on the road and hit a utility pole, breaking it.

A passenger in the Wilson car, Ann Franseken, 16, of 1840 Cedar, was listed as injured in the accident but she apparently did not seek immediate medical treatment.

Both vehicles were heavily damaged.

About 12:15 p.m., Clifford T. Bunch, 19, of Meredosia, was ticketed for failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

Police said Bunch was westbound on West Morton Ave., near the Holiday Inn, when his car slammed into the rear of a stopped auto driven by Betty J. Ehlert, 29, of 38 Pleasant View Trailer Court.

Father-son team HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—James Craig and Stephen Young will play the father and son lawyer team in "Courtroom One," a 90-minute ABC daytime drama which is also a spinoff for a new daytime series.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE SEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, ILLINOIS Morgan County, Juvenile Division No. 72- In the interest of PHILIP JAMES POWELL, a minor.

NOTICE BY PUBLICATION. NOTICE IS GIVEN YOU, respondents, and to all whom it may concern, that on September 13, 1972, a petition was filed under the Juvenile Court Act by Marcia Hagle in this court and that in the courtroom of Judge John B. Wright in Jacksonville, (Court House), Illinois, on October 3, 1972, 2 p.m. or as soon thereafter as this case may be heard, an adjudicatory hearing will be held upon the petition to have the minor declared to be a ward of the court and for other relief under that Act. Four Injured In Auto Crash Friday On 104

Four persons were injured, none of them seriously, in a two-car collision Friday about 5:40 p.m. on Ill. 104, about one-half mile west of the Ill.-79 junction.

Treated for minor injuries at Passavant Memorial Area Hospital's outpatient clinic were William Hunter, 28, his wife Kala, 20, of Salem; Clarence Campbell, 66, and his wife Margaret, 60, of 540 Sandusky St.

Investigating state troopers said the Hunter auto was westbound.

Investigating state troopers said an eastbound auto driven by Mr. Campbell turned left and collided with a westbound car operated by Mr. Hunter. Mr. Campbell was ticketed

Business Mirror

By JOHN CUNIFF

AP Business Analysts NEW YORK (AP) — The combination of a 1968-1970 credit crunch and a recession in 1971 has left many small- and medium-size businessmen much wiser in managing their assets, more sophisticated in handling their money.

That assessment was made this week by executives of Walter E. Heller & Co., a major security lender. According to Allen Kerr, senior vice president, the corporate finance officers' company contacts are now a lot sharper.

The legacy means that such businesses likely will remain more competitive and less crisis ridden when one or a combination of the same circumstances develops again, as perhaps they will.

One of the most observable effects, says Franklin A. Cole, president, is that "there isn't a treasurer worth his pay who isn't putting his money to work."

Before the combination credit squeeze-recession, a good many treasurers permitted their "excess" funds to lie in checking or savings accounts or certificates of deposit, Cole states.

The money in the checking accounts earned no interest. Funds left in savings accounts earned interest but usually were tied up for 30 days. Funds invested in CDs at a higher interest rate might be tied up an entire year.

Cole claims that treasurers who found their assets thus unavailable to them when credit emergencies arose are now more likely to deal in the commercial paper market, where interest can be earned for as few as five and as many as 270 days.

Not only have they learned the importance of putting their money to work intensively, says Cole, but they have learned also how to make better use of their assets in borrowing.

He and Kerr claim that corporate finance officers are far more intelligent now in using their inventories and accounts receivable to secure short-term loans that otherwise wouldn't be available to them, thus providing liquidity and smoother expansion.

Such businessmen, say the Heller executives, now realize that the interest rate, rather than being the sine qua non, or essential element, of a deal, is perhaps one of the least important factors.

More important, they add — and they maintain also that treasurers of small- and medium-size companies with annual sales of $1 million to $20 million agree — is to have money when needed and in sufficient quantity for the needs.

Don't Risk Losing Medicare Protection

By CARLTON SMITH

If you or anyone of your acquaintance is nearing 65, remember you risk losing valuable protection by failure to sign up early for Medicare.

To be covered under the federal program, an individual can't wait until he or she is 65, but must enroll well before that birthday, the Health Insurance Institute cautions.

It's possible to enroll as soon as you're within three months of your 65th birthday. It's mandatory to enroll some time with the next two months. If you show up to enroll later than one month prior to your birthday, you've waited too long.

The individual who fails to enroll by that time will have lost at least one month's protection and will have to foot the bills for any medical or hospital care that's needed during this gap period.

There's further penalty for those who haven't signed up within three months after the 65th birthday. They may not be able to enroll for as long as one year. In addition to the lost protection there's a good chance that premiums will be higher.

While Medicare and Medicaid are now covering around 60 percent of the cost of hospital care and physicians' charges for the 65-and-over, there's evidence in recent figures from the Social Security Administration that out-of-pocket expenses are still a substantial item—one that has to be taken into account in planning retirement finances.

In fiscal 1971, says the SSA, the average medical bill for a person 65 or older was $861. That was much more than six times as much as the medical expenses of the under-19 youth group ($140), and 2 1/2 times as much as was spent by those between 19 and 64 ($323).

NEW HIGHS SET IN SOYBEAN, GRAIN FUTURES

CHICAGO (AP) — A heavy demand for commodity futures, sparked by reports of crop problems sent prices sharply higher on the Chicago Board of Trade yesterday.

New highs for the season were set in wheat, corn, new crop soybeans, oats and soybean meal.

Within 10 minutes after the opening, soybeans had advanced 8 1/2 cents, wheat 7 1/2 cents, corn 6 1/2 cents and oats 2 cents.

The March soybean meal contract advanced the day's limit of 5.00 after Peru had announced that there would be no more netting of fish to be used for fertilizer until March 1, 1973.

The heavy buying in commodity futures here produced widespread short-covering as prices bulled ahead. About 30 minutes after the opening, however, local professionals took profits and some of the gains were almost halved.

A major factor in the buying of grain futures were reports from Iowa and Nebraska that root rot damage had been found in corn and milo plants. There had been concern in recent days that problems might arise in the wake of recent rains.

The buying of soybeans and meal was stimulated by the Peruvian decision. Iced broilers gained some 20 points on buying linked to higher prices for red meats in futures and in the cash market.

After about an hour, soybeans were up 2 1/2 to 5 cents a bushel, September 2.40; wheat was 3 to 4 cents a bushel higher, September 2.00; corn was 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents higher, September 1.40 1/2; and oats were 1/2 to 2 cents higher, September 82 cents.

CHICAGO POULTRY

CHICAGO (AP) — (PEN) — Eggs improved; wholesale buying prices Friday unchanged to 1 higher; large whites 38; mediums 33; standards 33; checks 14.

BUTTER MARKET

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago Mercantile Exchange—Butter steady to firm; wholesale buying prices Friday unchanged to 1/4 higher; 93 score AA 70-70 1/2; 92 A 70; 90 B 68 1/2.

Before passage of the Medicare and Medicaid laws in 1966 older people were out-of-pocket for about half their medical expenses. In 1971, reimbursements by federal programs and private insurance cut their out-of-pocket share to about one-fourth. Yet, because of escalating medical costs, the dollar total was nearly the same—$234 in 1966, $225 in 1971.

Thus the typical retired couple would seem to be spending $450 a year out of pocket, to pay for health care. The average payment to a retired couple will be about $271, after the 20 per cent increase in September, according to the SSA.

Clearly when a couple has to spend nearly two months' income on health care, the "womb-to-tomb welfare state" is not quite a reality in this country. And the moral is—for those with time yet remaining—that we'd better plan on taking substantial private funds into retirement with us.

INSURANCE FIRMS, BANK FILE SUIT AGAINST HUBBARD

CHICAGO (AP) — Two insurance companies and a bank have filed suit against former Alderman Fred Hubbard claiming that he forged checks depriving them of more than $80,000.

The suit was filed Thursday in Circuit Court by attorneys for American Motorists Insurance Co., Long Grove; Hartford Insurance and Indemnity Co., Chicago, and Amalgamated Trust and Savings Bank, also of Chicago.

The checks allegedly were forged while Hubbard was project director of the now-defunct Chicago Plan for Equal Opportunity, Inc., a federally sponsored program to get jobs for blacks in the construction industry.

The suit contends American lost $45,328.23; Hartford $29,671.77 and Amalgamated $5,000.

The three companies handled and insured Chicago Plan funds and the $90,000 is the amount the three had to pay the federal government after the funds disappeared while Hubbard was director.

Hubbard is in jail on charges of embezzlement in connection with the missing funds.

ILLINOIS SCHOOL SYSTEM FREE OF TEACHER STRIKES

BENSENVILLE, Ill. (AP) — For the first time in several weeks, the school system in Benseville, the school system in Ill.

Teachers and the Benseville Board of Education reached agreement Thursday, ending a four-day strike that had involved about half the district's 144 teachers.

At issue were contract clauses pertaining to working conditions and salary. A spokesman for the teachers said the new contract includes a salary boost and insures that teachers will have a voice in educational policymaking and in teacher evaluation.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market's performance Friday resembled a rerun of Thursday's.

Volume was low, most price changes were small, and the Dow Jones average of 30 industrial changed directions several times during the day.

The blue-chip indicator closed at 947.32, off 23, its best reading of the session. Two hours earlier it had been down 1.58.

The New York Stock Exchange index of more than 1,400 common stocks finished at 59.76, down .04.

Advances and declines on the Big Board came out 762 to 632, the losers winning. Volume sagged to 11.69 million shares, compared with 12.5 million Thursday.

"Considering such problems as rising interest rates, inflation and the Vietnam war, it seems to me the market is doing pretty well under the circumstances," said Charles M. Lewis of Treves & Co. "There has been no outpouring of stocks and that is a good sign."

Sam I. Nakagami, economist with Kidder, Peabody & Co., said that "it's a cautious market at this point" but that he felt "most of the investors' doubts will be resolved in a more positive direction in a matter of weeks."

AT&T was the Big Board's volume leader, up 1/4 to 45 1/2. On a percentage basis, the Big Board's best advancing issue was City Investing Co. warrants, which rose 15.6 per cent as it closed at 4 1/2, up 1/2.

On The American Stock Exchange, the volume leader was Technicolor.

Allied Artists was the Amex's best gainer on a percentage basis, up 1 to 4 3/4 for a boost of 26.7 per cent.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Do Carrots Really Help Your Eyes?

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb — Please satisfy my curiosity and possibly someone else's. Is there any truth to what I hear about carrots improving one's eyesight?

Dear Reader — Yes, there is. I suspect this is true, though, only in people who have a vitamin A deficiency. Carrots are very rich in vitamin A. This vitamin is important in the chemical formation of a substance in the back of the eye, called visual purple. It particularly helps a person to see better at night.

Individuals who have a true vitamin A deficiency often have what we call "night blindness," which means that they can't see very well when the lighting is poor or at night. If a person is eating a good balanced diet (which should include some carrots part of the time) they'll probably be getting vitamin A in vegetables and even in orange juice. Most commercial milk is fortified with vitamin A.

It's not very likely for people to have a vitamin A deficiency today if they're drinking their milk and eating a balanced diet. This was perhaps more common in years past when fresh vegetables were not so available and commercial milk was not fortified with vitamin A. In any case a carrot a day isn't going to hurt anybody and it may help a few people.

It is true, however, that vitamin A is one of the few vitamins that can cause poisoning in very high doses, so don't go overboard with vitamin A tablets.

Dear Dr. Lamb — My sister's doctor had her blood tested and said her blood could not take any more iron. She takes B-12 shots. What does the doctor mean when he says her blood will not take any more iron? Is this a serious disease?

Dear Reader — I presume the doctor meant that the blood contained as much as is normal for it to contain. The major portion of iron in the blood is in the red blood cells combined with a blood protein to form hemoglobin. This is the substance in the red blood cells that enable them to transport oxygen to the body cells and carry away carbon dioxide.

When the red blood cells are of normal size and contain the normal amount of hemoglobin, therefore iron, taking any more iron will not increase the amount of iron in the bloodstream. In other words, each red blood cell has a maximum capacity of how much iron it will hold or needs. When it's full, the rest of the iron is wasted.

What the doctor is explaining to you, I suspect, is that if she has anemia it's not because she needs iron. He's probably giving her B-12 shots because she has deficiency in this vitamin or is not using the natural sources of this vitamin in her food properly. This can lead to a different kind of anemia, classically, pernicious anemia. The treatment for this form of anemia is not iron, but B-12 shots.

A B-12 deficiency that might cause pernicious anemia isn't serious as long as the proper treatment is taken regularly as prescribed by the doctor.

STUFFED SHRIMP
Clams go into the well-seasoned stuffing.

2 pounds (24 large) shrimp, shelled and deveined

1 can (10½ ounces) minced clams

¼ cup instant minced onion

¼ cup water

8 tablespoons butter

2 cups soft bread crumbs

2 tablespoons parsley flakes

1 teaspoon dried crushed basil

1 teaspoon salt

½ teaspoon dried crushed thyme

¼ teaspoon garlic powder

Red pepper to taste

1 tablespoon lemon juice

½ teaspoon paprika

Cut almost through shrimp to center to "butterfly." Drain clams, reserving clams and ¼ cup of the liquid. Mix onion with water; let stand 10 minutes to rehydrate. In a small skillet melt 4 tablespoons of the butter; add the rehydrated onion and saute 5 minutes. In a small mixing bowl mix together the onion, bread crumbs, clams and the reserved ¼ cup liquid, parsley, basil, ¼ teaspoon of the salt, thyme, garlic powder and red pepper. Place a heaping tablespoon of the mixture on each butterflied shrimp; arrange in a buttered baking pan (13 by 9 by 2 inches). Melt remaining 4 tablespoons butter; stir in lemon juice and remaining ¼ teaspoon salt; pour over shrimp; sprinkle with paprika. Bake, uncovered, in a preheated 350-degree oven until stuffing is firm and browned and shrimps are tender—25 to 35 minutes. Makes 6 to 8 portions.

Triopia Rallies To Top 'Cats 12-6

By JERRY SEIBERT

CONCORD — A pair of second-half touchdowns sparked the host Triopia Trojans to a comeback 12-6 decision over the Winchester Wildcats Friday night to the delight of a large Dad's Night crowd which saw the first game of the season for both squads.

After a slow first half during which both squads worked at finding the best combinations for their young offenses and in which only Winchester could light the scoreboard with a long, breakaway touchdown, Triopia took the kickoff to open the second half and marched for its initial score before using an interception in the final stanza to wrap up the game.

The lone Wildcat tally came with 5:34 remaining in the second period as senior running back Dan Brown circled right end around a Trojan defensive player who found himself caught inside and raced 51 yards on the first play after a Triopia punt to make the score 6-0 with the running attempt for the point after failing.

In the opening quarter neither team was able to rack up a first down as both the Wildcats and Trojans were forced to punt three times each. Winchester broke the first down ice at the start of the second quarter but then had to punt two first downs later before receiving the ball back on a Triopia punt for the touchdown play.

The closest Triopia got to pay dirt was the 45-yard stripe in the opening chapter while moving only to the 45-yard line in the second period. After the start of the final two frames, however, the game was an entirely different story.

Starting with possession at their own 35, Triopia moved to the goal in 18 plays, gathering five first downs along the way as senior workhorse Jeff Wessler, who carried 22 times for 61 yards, hurtled over from the one on a fourth-down effort.

Following the ensuing kickoff, Winchester fumbled on the first play from scrimmage but got the ball back two plays later as Bob Bruns intercepted a Dave Hatfield pass for the Wildcats. Two penalties later, however, faced with a long-yardage situation Winchester chose to go to the air but Triopia's Gerald Beard picked off the aerial to give the hosts the ball on the Winchester 40.

A big pass play on a third and nine situation from Hatfield to Wessler gained 34 yards as the ball moved from the 39 down to the five, goal to go. Again Wessler carried over on a fourth-down play from the one, sneaking through the right side unmolested with 9:14 remaining in the game to wrap up scoring although the visitors did make a strong bid to win near the end of the contest.

Triopia was running out the clock in its own territory with three minutes to play but on a third and eleven a halfback pass from Beard ended up in the hands of Winchester's Brian McKinney who gave the Wildcats the ball on Triopia's 31 with 2:39 showing.

Winchester moved down to the 22 as third down came up but an overly-anxious lineman brought on an offside penalty making it third and six, halting the Wildcat effort as McKinney could only scramble for a gain of five, ending the Winchester hopes of a win or tie as Triopia was able to eat up the clock during the final minute it had the ball.

Hickman's Slam Dumps Mets 9-3

CHICAGO (AP) — Jim Hickman's grand-slam home run and homers by Jose Cardenal and Billy Williams highlighted an 11-hit attack Friday that carried the Chicago Cubs to a 9-3 victory over the New York Mets.

Milt Pappas, 14-7, picked up his eighth straight victory as the Cubs opened a 2½-game lead over the third-place Mets in baseball's National League East.

Don Kessinger's triple and Cardenal's 15th homer put the Cubs ahead in the first inning, then they knocked out Gary Gentry, 7-9, in the third when Hickman belted his 16th homer and the fifth grand slam of his major league career.

Chicago made it 9-0 in the fifth on Williams' 30th homer, Hickman's double, Ron Santo's triple and Rick Monday's sacrifice fly off Tom Moore. John Milner hit his 17th homer, a two-run shot, in the sixth inning, and Wayne Garrett singled home a run in the seventh for the Mets.

Saukees Continue Record Streak, 34-0

55 Straight For Strong Pittsfield

By BUFORD GREEN, Sports Editor

WHITE HALL — The Pittsfield Saukees have a familiar look again in 1972, or so it must seem to any doubters that may have felt the Sauks were due for a "down year" this time around.

The Saukees served notice Friday night that they are again a state small school powerhouse, a tag that has lasted through six full seasons and is starting on a seventh.

The state-record winning streak started here seven years ago Friday evening and reached the 55-game straight mark with an impressive 34-0 blanking of North Greene that had all the earmarks of the Pittsfield teams that has already rolled up six consecutive perfect 9-0 slates.

Marking the varsity debut of new head coach Fred Erickson, the Saukees had their usual air-tight defense and a grinding ground attack, with some aerial accuracy from Rich Bergman thrown in for extras. The Saukees had a safe 20-0 spread by halftime and only some early-season troubles hanging on to the football threatened to ruin the seventh straight shutout over North Greene.

For the record, Pittsfield chipped up 313 net yards on the ground, behind John Carlton and Don Snyder, two of 11 Sauk backs to carry the ball; added 122 aerial yards on Bergman's arm. The Pittsfield defense, sparked by all-state probable Ron Ghrist among several others, limited the hosts to only 32 net yards on the night and just three first downs, the first coming midway through the third stanza on a penalty.

Stymied by a fumble on their first offensive series, the Saukees hit the second time: Carlton, who piled up 140 yards in 13 carries on the night, scooted for 52 yards on an end sweep to the 12, with Snyder blasting over a Ghrist-Terry Lyman hole from three away with 3:02 showing. Ghrist hit the first of a four-for-five extra point night.

A fumble in the North Greene end zone thwarted an early second period drive, but the Saukees rambled 45 yards in five plays on the next series, Carlton going over Mike Burton at right guard from three yards out 5:35 from the end of the half. After sticking the ground, Bergman cashed with Mark Deeder on a 39-yarder on the following series down to the 24, and came back on the next play to connect with Steve Bunting for six more with 2:50 left. At the half Pittsfield had 180 yards net to only three for the hosts.

Snyder returned the second half kickoff 80 yards right up the middle, but an offside call nullified the dash. Forty-five yards and six plays later the Saukees got it back however, with Snyder lunging 14 yards off left tackle again.

After recovering a fumble on the Spartans' 26 early in the fourth, Pittsfield finished its scoring on Bergman's perfect 26-yard toss to Deeder with 11:28 left.

North Greene got to the Pittsfield 34 in the third after a fumble and moved to the 13 before faltering. The top gain all night for the hosts was Bob Pollard's 15-yard dash late in the third.

Problem Plagued Illini Meet MSU

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Inate Illinois, stricken by key injuries and a puzzling NCAA benching of a promising sophomore halfback, tries to extend the longest current Big Ten win streak in a rugged football game Saturday.

Bob Blackman, former outstanding Dartmouth coach, bowed in at Illinois last season with six straight defeats before a surprising turnaround produced five successive victories for a 5-6 overall mark and a notable 5-3 Big Ten record.

Now, Blackman has been hexed even before the start of his second Big Ten campaign in which the Illini have been rated a solid title contender. Since last Monday, Blackman's woes included: A split finger on the throwing hand of stellar quarterback Mike Wells.

Leg injury slowdowns of two other kingpins, defensive end Tab Bennett and ace receiver Garvin Robertson.

And Thursday's disclosure that slashing soph Lonnie Perrin was ruled ineligible by the NCAA for a $600 award he received in 1971 as a worthy and needy high school senior from the Pigskin Club of Washington, D.C.

The capabilities of Wells, playing with a brace on his injured hand, and Bennett and Robertson may be conjectural against invading Michigan State before a Memorial Stadium crowd of about 50,000. But emotionally, the Illini figure to be at angry voltage over the ruling against Perrin, 214-pounder from Washington, D.C., where the Pigskin Club previously gave 31 other worthy prep athletes the same cash award with no apparent challenge by the NCAA.

Although Illinois properly administered the $600 donated to the Illini school through its financial aid office, the NCAA contended its code was violated because the Pigskin Club specified the money was to help Perrin.

As Illinois filed an immediate appeal, some Illinois players suspected a Big Ten rival blew the whistle on the school. Michigan State is rated by coach Duffy Daugherty as his strongest since the 1966 Spartan Big Ten champion club whose 9-0-1 record was marred only by a memorable 10-10 tie with Notre Dame.

"This is the most important opener in Michigan State history, and we've never prepared harder for an opponent," said Daugherty, who has great running depth to implement his wishbone offense.

Bluffs piled up 150 yards total offense to 100 yards for the losers. The Bluejays connected on five of seven pass attempts. Waverly hit on only two of thirteen throws.

Mark Barnett led the way on the ground for Bluffs, grinding out 86 yards. Bill Brockway, Randy Barnett, and Larry Renoud led the defense for the winners.

Score By Quarters: Bluffs 6 6 6 0-18 Waverly 6 6 0 0-12

Sam Seward scored first for the Tigers in the first frame on a 15-yard pass from quarterback Ron Kuhlman. The same combination hooked up for the extra points.

The second touchdown was set up on an 85-yard pass play from Kuhlman, standing in his end zone, to halfback Ladd Thompson. Thompson ran in from three yards out to cap the drive. Once again the Kuhlman-to-Seward combination clicked for the PAT.

The only score in the second frame came on a three-yard sneak by quarterback Kuhlman. The extra point attempt failed, giving Beardstown a 22-0 halftime edge.

The final score of the game came in the third quarter, on a nine-yard pass from Kuhlman to Seward. The PAT attempt was stopped short.

For the night the Tigers rushed for 66 yards. Kuhlman hit on five of eleven pass attempts for 146 yards. Co-captain Doug Barker led the stout defense with eight unassisted tackles, four assisted tackles and also recovered a fumble.

Score by quarters: Beardstown 16 6 0 0-22 Lewistown 0 0 0 0-0

Rockets Post 16-0 Spread In Opener

Hawk Errors Aid Routh In Victory

CARROLLTON — The Routh Rockets took advantage of numerous Carrollton errors to drive across for two touchdowns in the second half and post a 16-0 non-conference victory Friday night.

The Hawks, who threatened to dominate the play in the first half, fumbled eight times to blunt several good drives, as they handed the ball to Routh five times on bobbles. Routh was changed with only one lost fumble in the game, as time ran out in the first half.

Quarterback Tom Lockman rolled across with the initial Routh tally in the third quarter from three yards out on an option play. The Rockets drive had been set up six plays earlier when Carrollton fumbled on its own 20 yard line. Bob Henkhaus, who was the leading ground gainer with 65 yards in 12 carries pushed Routh in close on several drives through the tough Carrollton defense.

Lockman added the PAT seconds later on an identical keeper play for 8-0 lead with 4:23 to go in third period.

Routh was able to put the clincher on near the close of the contest as Jim Hankins intercepted a wayward Carrollton pass and again set the Rockets up on the Hawks' 20 yard line. Two plays later, with 51 to go in the game, halfback Stuart Splain fled around right end for 11 yards on a pitch out from Lockman. Henkhaus punched across for the extra points and the final margin of victory.

Despite the shutout final tally, the statistics for the two teams ended almost equally except for the fumbles. Routh pulled off 54 offensive plays to the Hawks' 46 with most of Routh's plays coming in the second half. The Rockets rushed for 143 yards to 112 for Carrollton. Routh completed one of four pass attempts 50, minus three yards while the Hawks attempted nine, completed one and had one pass intercepted for a 16-yard total effort.

Routh was whistled for ten penalties in the game for 70 yards as Carrollton had five penalties for 55 yards. Lockman turned in a good performance punting, as he kicked six times for a 36.0 average, with his longest effort sailing 41 yards.

After the opening exchanges when both team failed to move the ball in the first quarter, Carrollton appeared to be in charge as the hosts opened a drive on its own 33 yard line and marched down to the Routh 23 before Hankins fell on a loose ball. Carrollton starting quarterback Eric Wildhagen reportedly broke his collar bone on the second play from scrimmage and was replaced by junior Greg Pohlman, who engineered numerous Hawk threats in the first half.

Routh was not able to move the ball at all until late in the initial half when the Rockets took advantage of two 15-yard penalties against the Hawks and opened a ground game to get down inside the ten before time ran out on a field goal attempt at the end of the second frame.

Carrollton had a 65-yard touchdown pass play called back in the third period on a clipping call at midfield and fumbled the ball five plays later.

The leading ground gainer for the Hawks was Rick Phillips with 43 yards in 13 carries, followed by Cunningham with 39 yards in nine tries.

Henkhaus proved to be the workhorse for the Rockets as he was followed by Splain with 36 yards in 11 attempts.

Sciota Nips ISD On Early Tally 6-0

SCIOTA — Host Northwestern High school scored early in the first period and then held on in a defensive battle to edge the Illinois School for the Deaf 6-0 in the opening game for both teams Friday night.

Halfback Danny Monroe scored in a 26 yard scamper midway through the first frame for the only tally of the contest. Monroe's effort was set up by his brother Jeff, who returned an ISD punt 59 yards to put the victors in position two plays later.

The attempted kick for the extra point missed the mark setting the final margin of victory.

The two teams, settled down into an defensive battle with neither team threatening. The Tigers finished the night with 12 yards rushing, while being thrown for losses totaling 16 yards.

The Tigers attempted four passes, failing to connect on the tries, and were called for 65 yards worth of penalties. Tony Heller was the defensive star for ISD as he grabbed off an interception. The Tigers fumbled five times, recovering three.

Hornets Rip Warsaw 42-12 Via Last 8:00

MT. STERLING — Brown County broke open a tight ball game with four touchdowns in the final period and won its first contest of the year, a West Central Conference tilt, over visiting Warsaw 42-12 Friday night.

Warsaw was within four early in the final period, 16-12, but a heavy Hornet onslaught swung the whole momentum of the game around as the host tallied the final 26 points of the battle.

The winners broke the ice for the season by connecting on a 43-yard pass from Mike Hulvey to Dave Parker while Jerry Koch ran for the extra point to open scoring at 8-0.

The hosts made it 16-0 early in the second period as Koch ripped 22 yards up the middle for a TD while Butch Kalvo powered over for the points after.

Warsaw then prevented the first half from being a runaway as it scored with quarterback Ellefritz racing into the end zone on a 10-yard sweep with the PAT failing to make it a 16-6 game at the half as the Hornets halted a Warsaw rally on the one-yard line as time expired.

The third quarter passed by with each team scoreless before Warsaw made an effort to get back in the game, boosting the score to 16-12 as Ellefritz hit Mulch with a 10-yard screen pass up the middle with the point after try missing.

But this was as close as the visitors were to come as the Hornets connected on a Hulvey to Kalvo pass for 45 yards, a Hulvey to Ed Ward bomb for a 36-yard TD, a 52-yard run by Ron Busen up the middle and a Jerry Koch 12-yard sweep around the left end with Dan Sackman booting extra points after the final two touchdowns.

The winners rushed for a total of 260 yards with Hulvey showing a strong passing arm as he ended up with eight completions in 11 tries.

Score By Quarters: Brown County 8 8 0 26-42 Warsaw 0 6 0 6-12

Scoring: BC — Hulvey to Parker, 43 pass, (Koch run), 8-0 BC — Koch, 22 run, (Kalvo run), 16-0 W — Ellefritz, 10 run, (pat failed), 16-6 W — Ellefritz to Mulch, 10 pass, (pat failed), 16-12 BC — Hulvey to Kalvo, 45 pass, (pat failed), 22-12 BC — Hulvey to Ward, 36 pass, (pat failed), 28-12 BC — Ron Busen, 52-run, (Sackman kick), 35-12 BC — Koch 12 run, (Sackman kick), 42-12

Big Ten Squads Plunge To Battle

By JERRY LISK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Controversy and injuries marred the Big Ten football scene Saturday as eight teams, headed by preseason-favored Ohio State, launch the season in conference play and two members begin against outside foes.

The inaugural round spotlight focused on Champaign, Ill., where highly-regarded Illinois tangles with formidable Michigan State in an important conference clash spiced by Illinois bitterness over an 11th hour NCAA benching of a star sophomore halfback for purported illegal cash aid.

The three other league contests include last-place Iowa at Ohio State; 1971 runnerup Northwestern at defending champion Michigan; and Minnesota, under new coach Cal Stoll, at Indiana.

In the two non-conference openers, Purdue and Wisconsin are Big Ten hosts to Bowling Green and independent Northern Illinois.

Already hexed by a freak injury to their heralded quarterback, Mike Wells, the Illini had speedy Lonnie Perrin of Washington, D.C., ruled by the NCAA permanently ineligible as a result of a $600 award from the Pigs Club of Washington.

Illinois immediately appealed the Friday ruling, believed to have stemmed from complaint by another Big Ten school, with the Illini contending the Pigs Club previously granted similar awards to 31 "worthy" high school seniors in financial need.

In addition to Wells, who split his right ring finger taking a center snap in practice last Monday, the Illini bid to stretch the longest current Big Ten victory streak to six games is jolted by injuries which slowed two other key players—defensive end Tab Bennett and wide receiver Garvin Robinson.

Ohio State, although rated a 15-point favorite over Iowa, also is starting an injury-beset quarterback, Greg Hare, who has an ailing shoulder, while Buckeye defensive end Mike Scannell is out with a dislocated finger. Iowa linebacker Bill Sneider will be benched by a bruised sternum.

Defending titlist Michigan, stripped of 11 starters from last year's Wolverine powerhouse, has three injured regulars who are doubtful starters. The Wolverines are picked by 17 over rebuilt Northwestern.

Much improved Indiana is a one-touchdown pick over Minnesota which will be missing injured senior offensive guard Paul Toffler.

Wisconsin gets only a seven-point call over Northern Illinois which opened with a 21-7 victory over Illinois State. Purdue, tabbed a top Big Ten title contender, rates by 15 over Bowling Green's Falcons.

Penn St. Tennessee In College Spotlight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The last time Joe Paterno cried the blues, his Penn State football team devoured Texas 30-6 in the Cotton Bowl back in January. Now, Paterno is about to send his Nittany Lions into action for the first time since New Year's Day and his words have a familiar ring.

"We are so banged up that we haven't been able to work in pads," he said early in the week. "We are way behind in our preparation and not even close to being ready to play a team in Tennessee's class. We will have to play well in all areas just to stay on the field with Tennessee."

The Lions and Vols get together in Knoxville, Tenn., Saturday night in college football's only weekend match-up between members of The Associated Press Top Twenty—Penn State is sixth, Tennessee seventh.

It will be a matter of revenge—as well as the season opener—for the Lions. They hit Knoxville for their regular season finale last December with a 10-0 record and came home 10-1 thanks to a 31-11 licking, only to take it out on Texas.

Paterno plays down the revenge motif. He's more concerned with his team's physical condition, plus what he saw last week when Tennessee opened with a 34-3 drubbing of Georgia Tech.

"They are just a great football team," he said. "I've never seen a more impressive opening game. They have execution, poise, quickness, conditioning—they look like a super team."

Paterno's big problem is replacing the great running duo of Lydell Mitchell and Franco Harris. John Cappelletti, a defensive back last season, is the likely successor to Mitchell, but Tom Donchez, the Cotton Bowl starter ahead of Harris, is out for the year following knee surgery. That leaves Bob Nagle as the only runner who carried the ball in 1971, and he only got it 13 times.

Elsewhere, Southern California puts its new No. 1 ranking

on the line for the first time in a Pacific-8 conference game against Oregon State under the Los Angeles lights while runner-up Colorado hosts Cincinnati in the afternoon.

Third-ranked Ohio State gets underway at home against Big Ten rival Iowa while fourth-rated Oklahoma and its devastating wishbone offense are at home against Utah State and pass-happy Tony Adams.

Fifth-ranked Alabama has the week off while No. 8 UCLA, fresh from a stunning upset of defending national champion Nebraska, is at Pitt. Louisiana State, rated ninth, opens at home and at night against Pacific and Nebraska, all the way down from first to 10th in the rankings, plays host to Texas A&M.

In games featuring members of the second ten, Northwestern is at No. 11 Michigan, Duke at No. 12 Washington, No. 13 Arizona State at Houston in the national television game (ABC-TV), Baylor at No. 16 Georgia, Bowling Green at No. 18 Purdue, No. 19 Mississippi at Memphis State and No. 20 Florida State at Miami, Fla. The last two are night games.

Notre Dame, Texas and Arkansas, ranked 14th, 15th and 17th, respectively, are not scheduled.

At Nebraska, Bob Devaney's main chore this week was getting his club "back up" as UCLA virtually ruined the Cornhuskers' hopes for an unprecedented third consecutive national championship. And he was quick to point out that Texas A&M could end the dream once and for all.

Another team with super backs is Arizona State. The Sun Devils finished eighth in the Other key games Saturday find Richmond at West Virginia, North Carolina at Maryland, Syracuse at North Carolina State, Michigan State at Illinois, Minnesota at Indiana, Wyoming at Air Force, Washington State at California, Iowa State at Colorado State, Arizona at Oregon and San Jose State at Stanford.

Porta Rambles In Second Half For 32-15 Margin

GREENFIELD — Taking advantage of two blocked punts and a recovered fumble, Porta pushed across 24 second half points and clipped Greenfield 32-15 in an MSM Conference game Friday evening.

The winners, who held a 239-211 yard total advantage, opened scoring on an eight-yard carry by Dan Sullivan with 4:31 left in the first half, with Mike Siefert running the extra points. The TD was set up after a fumble recovery at the 35.

Greenfield knotted it 36 seconds from the half-time horn with Jim McClelland firing 70 yards to Ken Lamb and McClelland hitting Russell Finney for the conversion points.

Serge Davis hit across from a yard away for Porta in the third round, after Jeff Squires blocked a punt. Minutes later Jim Rogers returned a punt 58 yards to boost Porta's lead to 20-0.

McClelland teamed with Lamp again for a 60-yard strike 3:01 from the end of the third, with Kevin Williams booting the point after to get Greenfield back in the game.

Davis hit Sullivan on a 15-yarder for a Porta score in the fourth, and Siefert hit over from a yard away after Mark Lounsbury blocked a punt for 12 fourth quarter points that iced the outcome.

Chiefs, Dolphins Meet In Rematch

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Last year's game was one of the great sports spectacles of all time. There's no way you could duplicate the situation—the game had everything: offense, defense, drama.

The speaker was Coach Don Shula of Miami, and he was referring to the Dolphins' dramatic 27-24 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in an American Football Conference playoff game last season. The game was the longest in pro football history and wasn't decided until Miami's Garo Yepremian kicked a 37-yard field goal after 22 minutes, 40 seconds of sudden-death overtime.

The Chiefs and Dolphins will meet in a rematch of that historic game Sunday, when the National Football League launches its 53rd season.

In other opening games Sunday, Philadelphia will be at Dallas, Atlanta at Chicago, Green Bay at Cleveland, Houston at Denver, Cincinnati at New England, the New York Jets at Buffalo, New Orleans at Los Angeles, the New York Giants at Detroit, St. Louis at Baltimore, Oakland at Pittsburgh, and San Diego at San Francisco.

Washington will be at Minnesota in Monday night's nationally televised game.

The Miami-Kansas City rematch will be Sunday's nationally televised game and will be the first regular season game at Kansas City's 78,000-seat Arrowhead Stadium.

Kansas City Coach Hank Stram isn't talking much about the game, but Shula says, "We're fully aware of what will be waiting for us. As for last year's win, you don't ever forget things like that. It's not going to help you win the next one, but you do go in knowing you won the last one."

The Dolphins, last season's AFC champions, appear even stronger this season with the acquisition of wide receiver Marlin Briscoe and defensive tackle Jim Dunaway.

Mercury Morris was the Dolphins' leading runner during the exhibition season and will alternate in the offensive backfield with Jim Kiklik and Larry Csonka, last season's regulars.

Dallas, last season's Super Bowl champion, will take several notable streaks into its game against Philadelphia's injury plagued and reportedly dissension-riddled Eagles.

The Cowboys have won seven straight opening games since 1965. They're unbeaten and untied in nine games at Texas Stadium, which opened last year. They've beaten Philadelphia nine consecutive times since 1967, and they won their last 10 games last season, including three in the playoffs.

However, they will be without No. 1 quarterback Roger Staubach, who suffered a separated right shoulder in an exhibition game, and running back Duane Thomas, traded to San Diego.

Abe Gibrin will be making his debut as Chicago coach, and he will have to go with a revised running attack of Jim

Harrison and rookie Roger Lawson against Atlanta, following the retirement of Gale Sayers and an injury to Joe Moore.

Cleveland Coach Nick Skorich has tabbed veteran Bill Nelson over young Mike Phipps as the starting quarterback against Green Bay. The Packers will counter with a power running game, led by John Brockington, last season's Rookie of the Year, and MacArthur Lane.

The Houston-Denver game will mark the pro debut of both coaches—Bill Peterson of the Oilers and John Ralston of the Broncos. NFL rushing champion Floyd Little is expected to carry most of the offensive burden for Denver.

On the other end of the coaching ledger is Cincinnati's Paul Brown, beginning his 22nd pro season. His Bengals will be playing a New England team sparked by quarterback Jim Plunkett, who didn't miss an offensive play in his rookie season last year.

Joe Namath, the Jets' flashy quarterback, will have Don Maynard, pro football's all-time leader in reception yardage, as one of his prime targets against Buffalo. Lou Saban is beginning his second tenure as Bills' coach.

Los Angeles quarterback Roman Gabriel, having shaken the effects of a collapsed lung and a knee injury, is expected to be ready for full-time duty against New Orleans.

Veteran Norm Snead, at quarterback, and running back Ron Johnson are the Giants' major offensive hopes for an upset over Detroit. Greg Landry, who completed 59 per cent of his passes for 777 yards and 11 touchdowns during the exhibition, leads the Lions' offense.

Baltimore quarterback Johnny Unitas, starting his 17th pro season, needs only 63 yards passing for a record career total of 22 miles—38,720 yards—in the Colts game against St. Louis. The Cardinals are going at quarterback with Tim Van Galder, a 1968 draft choice who never has started a pro game.

George Blanda, Oakland's 45-year-old quarterback, who was born in Youngwood, Pa., will be honored in pre-game ceremonies at Pittsburgh. Blanda holds several pro records, including most points scored, 1,647, and most seasons active player, 22.

Harland Sware, who has made a record of 21 trades, will be starting his first full season as Chargers' coach against the 49ers in San Francisco. The game is expected to be a duel of veteran quarterbacks, John Brodie of San Francisco, in his 16th season, and San Diego's John Hadl, in his 11th year.

Monday night's nationally televised game will bring together the National Football Conference's two most successful coaches, Washington's George Allen, 58-21-5, and Minnesota's Bud Grant, 46-21-3. Bill Kilmer surprisingly has been given the starting quarterback job for Washington, ahead of Sonny Jurgensen.

Boston Holds First Place Via 4-3 Win

BOSTON (AP) — Reggie Smith doubled home the winning run with two out in the ninth inning as the Boston Red Sox defeated the Cleveland Indians 4-3, and maintained their hold on first place in the torrid American League East race.

The winning run was made possible by pitcher Milt Wilcox' error. Wilcox allowed Carl Yastrzemski to reach first base when he dropped first baseman Chris Chambliss' toss after a ground ball.

Smith then came through with his game-winning hit to right field off Wilcox, 7-1. The hit made a winner of Bob Veale, 2-0, who came into the game in the ninth inning with the score tied 3-3.

The Indians took a 1-0 lead in the first inning on Chambliss' two-out double and a single by Graig Nettles.

The Indians made it 3-0 in the fifth on Nettles' two-run double. Boston tied the contest with three runs in the sixth, two on Smith's home run and another on Carlton Fisk's run-scoring triple.

Birds Edge Yanks 3-1, Key Game

NEW YORK (AP) — Big Boog Powell cracked a three-run home run in the first inning to give Jim Palmer his 20th victory and the Baltimore Orioles a 3-1 triumph over the New York Yankees in a key American League East baseball game Friday night.

Powell unloaded his 20th homer of the season into the right-centerfield bleachers with one out in the first after Yank starter Mel Stottlemyre had walked the first two batters, Don Buford and Rich Coggins.

It marked the third straight 20-victory season for Palmer, who held the Yankees to six hits, through 7 1-3 innings.

Left-hander Grant Jackson relieved Palmer after Horace Clarke's one-out single in the eighth and induced Roy White and Bobby Murcer to fly out.

Before a two-out seventh-inning homer by Johnny Callison, Palmer was in complete control. He had permitted only four fourth-inning singles to Clarke and White before retiring the side in order.

Following Callison's seventh homer of the season, the Orioles right-hander gave up consecutive singles to Bernie Allen and Thurman Munson, then got pinch-hitter Felipe Alou to fly out.

It was the seventh time this season that Palmer has proved to be the Orioles' stopper by ending a losing streak. This time Baltimore, defending AL champions, ended a two-game skid.

Stottlemyre, 14-17, settled down after his poor start, allowing only five hits in eight innings.

The loss dumped the Yankees into fourth place in the AL East.

Deane Beman Lifts Classic Golf Lead

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Deane Beman fashioned a three-under-par 67 and stretched his lead over Lee Trevino to two strokes Friday in the second round of the $150,000 Greater St. Louis Golf Classic.

The diminutive Beman, one of the smallest players on the pro circuit, matched the best two-round total on the tour this season with a 131—nine under par on the 6,550-yard Norwood Hills Country Club course.

Trevino, the flashy, flamboyant British Open champ, was just one stroke back when play started on the mild, overcast day, but drifted one more off.

Longshot Don Bles, a non-winning tour regular, slipped into third place with a 66 for 134.

Veteran Bob Goalby, a former Masters champion, had a share of second with Trevino until he bogeyed the last two holes for a 68. That dropped him back to fourth at 135.

At 16 were former U.S. Open champion Orville Moody, John Schroeder, Harry Toscano and rookie Dave Glenz. Moody and Schroeder matched 68s. Toscano had a 67 and Glenz shot a 69.

Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player and Billy Casper did not play in this event.

Beman, a dedicated perfectionist, was considerably less than enthusiastic about his round.

"Generally speaking," he said, "I played lousy. I drove poorly and I hit my irons worse. It seems that every time I looked up I was faced with getting down in two putts from 35-50 feet."

Norman Remains Reds Master Via 1-0 Margin

CINCINNATI (AP) — Little Fred Norman used Clarence Gaston's seventh homer of the season to defeat Cincinnati for the fourth time this season, 1-0, Friday as San Diego continued its mastery over the National League's West Division leaders.

It marked San Diego's ninth victory in 16 games against the Reds this season. The last-place Padres could, with another victory, become only the second team in the National League to hold a season's advantage over Cincinnati.

Both teams blew scoring opportunities in the first inning. The Padres loaded the bases off Don Gullett, 8-9, before Randy Elliott struck out.

Cincinnati had the bases full in their half of the inning but Norman, who owns four of the 11 victories by left-handers against the Reds this season, retired Tony Perez and Denis Menke.

Gullett struck out 11 Padres in the seven innings he pitched. Gaston, leading off the fourth, gave Norman the only run he needed.

Norman, who scattered seven hits, struck out 15 and walked five.

The total of 28 strikeouts by the two teams set a major league record for a single game.

Crow And Wells Sparks Indians By Industry 14-6

Industry — Meredosias scored early in the first quarter and sealed a victory with another tally in the third frame to outlast Industry 14-6 in a non-conference contest Friday night.

Junior tight end Tim Crow returned the first punt of the evening 70 yards to give the Indians an early 6-0 lead. The end around attempt for two points failed, setting the stage for the defensive battle the rest of the half.

Don Wells capped a long drive for the victors late in the third period as he went 15 yards for the second TD. A pass from Steve Browning to Wells added the points after for a 14-0 spread.

Industry scored late in the game on a pass up the middle. Dave Beachamp was the leading ground gainer for the Indians with 59 yards, followed by Browning with 44. Meredosias gained 127 yards from scrimmage.

Kinscherff Lets Pl. Hill Open With 16-8 Count

PLEASANT HILL — With Rich Kinscherff leading the way, the Pleasant Hill Wolves opened their season with a 16-8 victory over Camp Point Friday night. The speedy 160-pound senior halfback scored two touchdowns and ran in a PAT.

Kinscherff opened the scoring in the first frame, with a two-yard plunge. Kinscherff carried the PAT to stake the Wolves to an 8-0 lead.

The final Pleasant Hill score came on a 35-yard jaunt by Kinscherff in the second quarter. Greg Tolbert legged the extra points.

The Camp Point Panthers' one score came in the third frame, on a 25-yard pass to John McMahon from Mike Hughes. Mike Kaffing legged the PAT.

Pleasant Hill finished the night with 124 yards on the ground. The Wolves completed one pass out of four attempts, for 17 yards. Mike Rayner, a sophomore linebacker led the Wolves on defense, getting in on 25 tackles.

Big Ten Squads Plunge To Battle

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

Controversy and injuries marred the Big Ten football scene Saturday as eight teams, headed by preseason-favored Ohio State, launch the season in conference play and two members begin against outside foes.

The inaugural round spotlight focused on Champaign, Ill., where highly-regarded Illinois tangles with formidable Michigan State in an important conference clash spiced by Illinois' bitterness over an 11th hour NCAA benching of a star sophomore halfback for purported illegal cash aid.

The three other league contests include last-place Iowa at Ohio State; 1971 runnerup Northwestern at defending champion Michigan; and Minnesota, under new coach Cal Stoll, at Indiana.

In the two non-conference openers, Purdue and Wisconsin are Big Ten hosts to Bowling Green and independent Northern Illinois.

Already hexed by a freak injury to their heralded quarterback, Mike Wells, the Illini had speedy Lonnie Perrin of Washington, D.C., ruled by the NCAA permanently ineligible as a result of a $600 award from the Pigs Club of Washington.

Illinois immediately appealed the Friday ruling, believed to have stemmed from complaint by another Big Ten school, with the Illini contending the Pigs Club previously granted similar awards to 31 "worthy" high school seniors in financial need.

In addition to Wells, who split his right ring finger taking a center snap in practice last Monday, the Illini bid to stretch the longest current Big Ten victory streak to six games is jolted by injuries which slowed two other key players—defensive end Tab Bennett and wide receiver Garvin Robinson.

Ohio State, although rated a 15-point favorite over Iowa, also is starting an injury-beset quarterback, Greg Hare, who has an ailing shoulder, while Buckeye defensive end Mike Scannell is out with a dislocated finger. Iowa linebacker Bill Sheeler will be benched by a bruised sternum.

Defending titlist Michigan, stripped of 11 starters from last year's Wolverines powerhouse, has three injured regulars who are doubtful starters. The Wolves are picked by 17 over rebuilt Northwestern.

Much improved Indiana is a one-touchdown pick over Minnesota which will be missing injured senior offensive guard Paul Tolleson.

Wisconsin gets only a seven-point call over Northern Illinois which opened with a 21-7 victory over Illinois State. Purdue, tabbed a top Big Ten title contender, rates by 15 over Bowling Green's Falcons.

Penn St., Tennessee In College Spotlight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The last time Joe Paterno cried the blues, his Penn State football team devoured Texas 30-6 in the Cotton Bowl back in January. Now, Paterno is about to send his Nittany Lions into action for the first time since New Year's Day and his words have a familiar ring.

"We are so banged up that we haven't been able to work in pads," he said early in the week. "We are way behind in our preparation and not even close to being ready to play a team in Tennessee's class. We will have to play well in all areas just to stay on the field with Tennessee."

The Lions and Vols get together in Knoxville, Tenn., Saturday night in college football's only weekend match-up between members of The Associated Press Top Twenty—Penn State is sixth, Tennessee seventh.

It will be a matter of revenge as well as the season opener—for the Lions. They hit Knoxville for their regular season finale last December, with a 10-0 record and came home 10-1 thanks to a 31-11 licking, only to take it out on Texas.

Paterno plays down the revenge motive. He's more concerned with his team's physical condition, plus what he saw last week when Tennessee opened with a 34-3 drubbing of Georgia Tech.

"They are just a great football team," he said. "I've never seen a more impressive opening game. They have execution, poise, quickness, conditioning—they look like a super team."

Paterno's big problem is replacing the great running duo of Lydell Mitchell and Franco Harris. John Capelletti, a defensive back last season, is the likely successor to Mitchell, but Tom Donchez, the Cotton Bowl starter ahead of Harris, is out for the year following knee surgery. That leaves Bob Nagle as the only runner who carried the ball in 1971, and he only got 13 times.

Elsewhere, Southern California puts its new No. 1 ranking

on the line for the first time in a Pacific-8 conference game against Oregon State under the Los Angeles lights while runner-up Colorado hosts Cincinnati in the afternoon.

Third-ranked Ohio State gets underway at home against Big Ten rival Iowa while fourth-ranked Oklahoma and its devastating wishbone offense are at home against Utah State and pass-happy Tony Adams.

Fifth-ranked Alabama has the week off while No. 8 UCLA, fresh from a stunning upset of defending national champion Nebraska, is at Pitt. Louisiana State, rated ninth, opens at home and at night against Pacific and Nebraska, all the way down from first to 10th in the rankings, plays host to Texas A&M.

In games featuring members of the second ten, Northwestern is at No. 11 Michigan, Duke at No. 12 Washington, No. 13 Arizona State at Houston in the national television game (ABC-TV), Baylor at No. 16 Georgia, Bowling Green at No. 18 Purdue, No. 19 Mississippi at Memphis State and No. 20 Florida State at Miami, Fla. The last two are night games.

Notre Dame, Texas and Arkansas, ranked 14th, 15th and 17th, respectively, are not scheduled.

At Nebraska, Bob Devaney's main chore this week was getting his club "back up" after UCLA virtually ruined the Cornhuskers' hopes for an unprecedented third consecutive national championship. And he was quick to point out that Texas A&M could end the dream once and for all.

Another team with super backs is Arizona State. The Sun Devils finished eighth in the Other key games Saturday find Richmond at West Virginia, North Carolina at Maryland, Syracuse at North Carolina State, Michigan State at Illinois, Minnesota at Indiana, Wyoming at Air Force, Washington State at California, Iowa State at Colorado State, Arizona at Oregon and San Jose State at Stanford.

Porta Rambles In Second Half For 32-15 Margin

GREENFIELD — Taking advantage of two blocked punts and a recovered fumble, Porta pushed across 24 second half points and clipped Greenfield 32-15 in an MSM Conference game Friday evening.

The winners, who held a 239-211 yard total advantage, opened scoring on an eight-yard carry by Dan Sullivan with 4:31 left in the first half, with Mike Siefert running the extra points. The TD was set up after a fumble recovery at the 35.

Greenfield knotted it 36 seconds from the half time horn with Jim McClelland firing 17 yards to Ken Lamb and McClelland hitting Russell Finney for the conversion points.

Serge Davis hit across from a yard away for Porta in the third round, after Jeff Squires blocked a punt. Minutes later Jim Rogers returned a punt 58 yards to boost Porta's lead to 20-0.

McClelland teamed with Lamp again for a 60-yard strike 3:01 from the end of the third, with Kevin Williams booting the point after to get Greenfield back in the game.

Davis hit Sullivan on a 15-yarder for a Porta score in the fourth, and Seifert hit over from a yard away after Mark Lounsbury blocked a punt for 12 fourth quarter points that iced the outcome.

Chiefs, Dolphins Meet In Rematch

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer

"Last year's game was one of the great sports spectacles of all time. There's no way you could duplicate the situation—the game had everything: offense, defense, drama."

The speaker was Coach Don Shula of Miami, and he was referring to the Dolphins' dramatic 27-24 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in an American Football Conference playoff game last season. The game was the longest in pro football history and wasn't decided until Miami's Garo Yepremian kicked a 37-yard field goal after 22 minutes, 40 seconds of sudden-death overtime.

The Chiefs and Dolphins will meet in a rematch of that historic game Sunday, when the National Football League launches its 33rd season.

In other opening games Sunday, Philadelphia will be at Dallas, Atlanta at Chicago, Green Bay at Cleveland, Houston at Denver, Cincinnati at New England, the New York Jets at Buffalo, New Orleans at Los Angeles, the New York Giants at Detroit, St. Louis at Baltimore, Oakland at Pittsburgh and San Diego at San Francisco.

Washington will be at Minnesota on Monday night's nationally televised game.

The Miami-Kansas City rematch will be Sunday's nationally televised game and will be the first regular season game at Kansas City's 78,000-seat Arrowhead Stadium.

Kansas City Coach Hank Stram isn't talking much about the game, but Shula says, "We're fully aware of what will be waiting for us. As for last year's win, you don't ever forget things like that. It's not going to help you win the next one, but you do go in knowing you won the last one."

The Dolphins, last season's AFC champions, appear even stronger this season with the acquisition of wide receiver Marlin Briscoe and defensive tackle Jim Dunaway.

Mercury Morris was the Dolphins' leading runner during the exhibition season and will alternate in the offensive backfield with Jim Kiklick and Larry Conka, last season's regulars.

Dallas, last season's Super Bowl champion, will take several notable streaks into its game against Philadelphia's injury plagued and reportedly dissension-riddled Eagles.

The Cowboys have won seven straight opening games since 1965. They're unbeaten and untied in nine games at Texas Stadium, which opened last year. They've beaten Philadelphia nine consecutive times since 1967, and they won their last 10 games last season, including three in the playoffs.

However, they will be without No. 1 quarterback Roger Staubach, who suffered a separated right shoulder in an exhibition game, and running back Duane Thomas, traded to San Diego.

Abe Giron will be making his debut as Chicago coach, and he will have to go with a revised running attack of Jim

Harrison and rookie Roger Lawson against Atlanta, following the retirement of Gale Sayers and an injury to Joe Moore.

Cleveland Coach Nick Skorich has tabbed veteran Bill Nelson over young Mike Phipps as the starting quarterback against Green Bay. The Packers will counter with a power running game, led by John Brockington, last season's Rookie of the Year, and MacArthur Lane.

The Houston-Denver game will mark the pro debut of both coaches—Bill Peterson of the Oilers and John Ralston of the Broncos. NFL rushing champion Floyd Little is expected to carry most of the offensive burden for Denver.

On the other end of the coaching ledger is Cincinnati's Paul Brown, beginning his 22nd pro season. His Bengals will be playing a New England team sparked by quarterback Jim Plunkett, who didn't miss an offensive play in his rookie season last year.

Joe Namath, the Jets' flashy quarterback, will have Don Maynard, pro football's all-time leader in reception yardage, as one of his prime targets against Buffalo. Lou Saban is beginning his second tenure as Bills' coach.

Los Angeles quarterback Roman Gabriel, having shaken the effects of a collapsed lung and a knee injury, is expected to be ready for full-time duty against New Orleans.

Veteran Norm Snead, at quarterback, and running back Ron Johnson are the Giants' major offensive hopes for an upset over Detroit. Greg Landry, who completed 59 per cent of his passes for 777 yards and 11 touchdowns during the exhibition, leads the Lions' offense.

Baltimore quarterback Johnny Unitas, starting his 17th pro season, needs only 63 yards passing for a record career total of 22 miles—38,720 yards—in the Colts game against St. Louis. The Cardinals are going at quarterback with Tim Van Galder, a 1966 draft choice who never has started a pro game.

George Blanda, Oakland's 45-year-old quarterback, who will be honored in pre-game ceremonies at Pittsburgh. Blanda holds several pro records, including most points scored, 1,647, and most seasons active player, 22.

Harland Sware, who has made a record of 21 trades, will be starting his first full season as Chargers' coach against the 49ers in San Francisco. The game is expected to be a duel of veteran quarterbacks, John Brodie of San Francisco, in his 16th season, and San Diego's John Hadl, in his 11th year.

Monday night's nationally televised game will bring together the National Football Conference's two most successful coaches, Washington's George Allen, 58-21-5, and Minnesota's Bud Grant, 46-21-3. Bill Kilmer surprisingly has been given the starting quarterback job for Washington, ahead of Sonny Jurgensen.

Boston Holds First Place Via 4-3 Win

BOSTON (AP) — Reggie Smith doubled home the winning run with two out in the ninth inning as the Boston Red Sox defeated the Cleveland Indians 4-3 and maintained their hold on first place in the torrid American League East race.

The winning run was made possible by pitcher Milt Wilcox' error. Wilcox allowed Carl Yastrzemski to reach first base when he dropped first baseman Chris Chambliss' toss after a ground ball.

Smith then came through with his game-winning hit to right field off Wilcox, 7-1. The hit made a winner of Bob Veale, 2-0, who came into the game in the ninth inning with the score tied 3-3.

The Indians took a 1-0 lead in the first inning on Chambliss' two-out double and a single by Graig Nettles.

The Indians made it 3-0 in the fifth on Nettles' two-run double. Boston tied the contest with three runs in the sixth, two on Smith's home run and another on Carlton Fisk's run-scoring triple.

Birds Edge Yanks 3-1, Key Game

NEW YORK (AP) — Big Boog Powell cracked a three-run home run in the first inning to give Jim Palmer his 20th victory and the Baltimore Orioles a 3-1 triumph over the New York Yankees in a key American League East baseball game Friday night.

Powell unloaded his 20th homer of the season into the right-centerfield bleachers with one out in the first at Yankee starter Mel Stottlemyre had walked the first two batters, Don Buford and Rich Coggins.

It marked the third straight 20-victory season for Palmer, who held the Yankees to six hits, through 7 1-3 innings.

Left-hander Grant Jackson relieved Palmer after Horace Clarke's one-out single in the eighth and induced Roy White and Bobby Murcer to fly out.

Before a two-out seventh inning homer by Johnny Callison, Palmer was in complete control. He had permitted only four hits in the first three innings and White before retiring the side in order.

Following Callison's seventh homer of the season, the Oriole right-hander gave up consecutive singles to Bernie Allen and Thurman Munson, then got pinch-hitter Felipe Alou to fly out.

It was the seventh time this season that Palmer has proved to be the Orioles' stopper by ending a losing streak. This time Baltimore, defending AL champions, ended a two-game skid.

Stottlemyre, 14-17, settled down after his poor start, allowing only five hits in eight innings.

The loss dumped the Yankees into fourth place in the AL East.

POWELL AT L.S.U. — All State basketball star Roger Powell of Joliet Central Friday enrolled at Illinois State University.

Powell, 6-4 1/2 and 200 pounds, is one of the finest shooters in Illinois prep history. He averaged 33 points a game last season plus 11 rebounds.

As a sophomore Powell led Joliet Central to a third place finish in the 1970 state tournament, and scored 90 points in four games.

Deane Beman Lifts Classic Golf Lead

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Deane Beman fashioned a three-under-par 67 and stretched his lead over Lee Trevino to two strokes Friday in the second round of the $150,000 Greater St. Louis Golf Classic.

The diminutive Beman, one of the smallest players on the pro circuit, matched the best two-round total on the tour this season with a 131—nine under par on the 6,550-yard Norwood Hills Country Club course.

Trevino, the flashy, flamboyant British Open champ, was just one stroke back when play started on the mild, overcast day, but drifted one more off.

Longshot Don Bles, a non-winning tour regular, slipped into third place with a 66 for 134.

Veteran Bob Goalby, a former Masters champion, had a share of second with Trevino until he bogeyed the last two holes for a 68. That dropped him back to fourth at 135.

At 16 were former U.S. Open champion Orville Moody, John Schroeder, Harry Toscano and rookie Dave Gieny. Moody and Schroeder matched 68s, Toscano had a 67 and Gieny shot a 69.

Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player and Billy Casper did not play in this event.

Beman, a dedicated perfectionist, was considerably less than enthusiastic about his round.

"Generally speaking," he said, "I played lousy. I drove poorly and I hit my irons worse. It seems that every time I looked up I was faced with getting down in two puts from 35-50 feet."

Norman Remains Reds Master Via 1-0 Margin

CINCINNATI (AP) — Little Fred Norman used Clarence Gaston's seventh homer of the season to defeat Cincinnati for the fourth time this season 1-0, Friday as San Diego continued its mastery over the National League's West Division leaders.

It marked San Diego's ninth victory in 16 games against the Reds this season. The last-place Padres could, with another victory, become only the second team in the National League to hold a season's advantage over Cincinnati.

Both teams blew scoring opportunities in the first inning. The Padres loaded the bases off Don Gullett, 8-9, before Randy Elliott struck out.

Cincinnati had the bases full in their half of the inning but Norman, who owns four of the 11 victories by left-handers against the Reds this season, retired Tony Perez and Denis Menke.

Gullett struck out 11 Padres in the seven innings he pitched. Gaston, leading off the fourth, gave Norman the only run he needed.

Norman, who scattered seven hits, struck out 15 and walked five.

The total of 28 strikeouts by the two teams set a major league record for a single game.

Twins Capture 4-3 Count Over Kansas City

MINNEAPOLIS—ST. PAUL (AP) — The Minnesota Twins lightened their grip on third place in baseball's American League West Friday night with a 4-3 victory over the Kansas City Royals behind the three-hit pitching of Dick Woodson and Dave LaRoche.

The Twins jumped in front in the first inning when Cesar Tovar got the first of his three hits and scored on Rod Carew's double. They got another in the third when Tovar singled, stole second and went to third when Carew beat out a bunt. Tovar then scored on Bob Darwin's sacrifice fly.

The third run came in the fourth when George Mitterwald hit his first home run of the season. Mitterwald tripled home another run in the eighth.

The Royals got their first hit and first run after two were out in the fourth inning when John Mayberry belted his 20th home run. They added a second run in the seventh when Fred Patek walked, stole second and scored on Steve Hovley's pinch-hit single.

LaRoche relieved Woodson in the ninth when the Royals scored their final run.

MEN AND MINES

In this modern mine at Benwood, W. Va., coal is now extracted by machine. But men have to be there to drive the heavy, mechanical continuous miners which bite out the black gold.

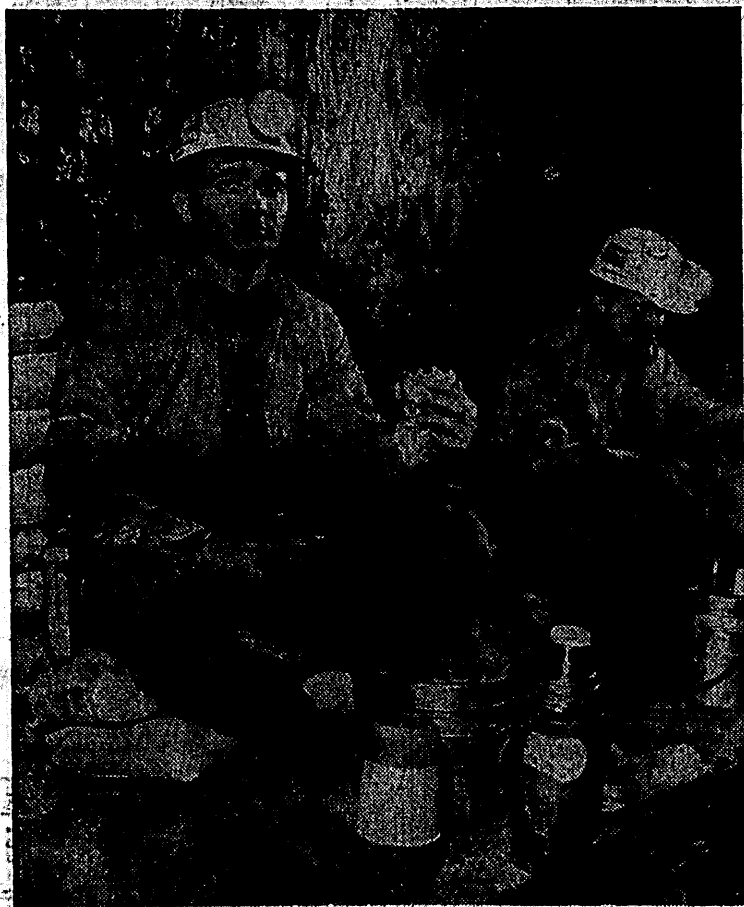

If they're not riding on the machines, men may have to crawl along tunnels only three or four feet high.

Machines swirl water on the coal to hold down dust. But men still fall victim to the crippling disease known as black lung.

Workers underground test the air for explosive methane gas at frequent intervals. Powdered limestone is sprayed on surfaces in the working areas to prevent fire. But there are still accidents in coal mines. The miner's job is probably the most dangerous industrial job of all. But it is a vital one; nearly half of all the nation's electricity is produced from coal.

Photographed by Harry Cabluck.

Curiosity Keeps Cat Young, Alive

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Curiosity kills the cat.

So an old English proverb says. It may be true, but it is also true that curiosity keeps a cat young and greatly alive, just as it does human beings.

That's why I am beginning to suspect that our family cat, Lady Dottie, may live forever. If curiosity can guarantee immortality, she will never run out of breath.

Lady Dottie is something of a feline Cinderella. The souvenir of a midnight passion on a suburban backyard fence by parents of unknown ancestry, she came to us as a homeless stray kitten with a black dot on her nose that made her look vaguely like a comic Adolf Hitler in fur.

Sept. 27—Salad luncheon at Centenary Methodist church, serving 11 a.m.-1 p.m.

Mrs. Joe Patterson Smith and Anne Bellatti, co-executors. Bellatti, Fay and Bellatti, attorneys. A. Middendorf and Sons, auctioneers.

Sept. 30—Dance, AMVETS. "The New Country."

October 9—Public Auction of Real Estate (120 Acres Farm Land) located 2 miles South and 1 mile East of Chambersburg, Illinois, to be sold at A. Middendorf & Sons Auction Co., 617 East Independence, Jacksonville, Ill. at 7:00 p.m. Leo L. Ralston, Owner. A. Middendorf & Sons Real Estate & Auction Sales and William L. Gaule, Auctioneers.

Now 14, black and white and large, she has the manners of an aristocrat and—thanks to an early visit to a veterinarian who made a lasting impression on her—the morals of a saint.

Last year Lady Dottie completed her freshman year at Windham College in Vermont with my other teen-ager, Tracy Ann, a daughter. Both, following a new custom that is becoming a tradition among many college students, are staying home this semester in order to "find themselves."

Lady Dottie is completely different from the typical human teen-ager, who would rather commit hara-kiri than show emotion of any kind in the presence of an adult.

Although at 14 a cat is getting to be a senior citizen, she is almost frantically curious about everything around her, particularly anything that moves.

She will lie and lap her fur indifferently at the screaming of a siren or the ear-hurting chattering of an automatic jackhammer outside the window, but if anything within eyesight makes a fractional move, she is on it in a bound and a pounce. She will paw for half an hour at a breeze-blown window cord, spend half a day prancing around a small be-mused bug or lost wing-dragged moth.

Automatically, she assumes that anything brought into the house is a present for her. She will scratch at a parcel, trying to open it, and won't rest until she gets to inspect its contents—first, of course.

But the chief object of her curiosity is her idol in the kitchen, the refrigerator. She sniffs at it endlessly, stands up and tries to paw the door open.

The big fear of my life is that sometime Lady Dottie will creep into the refrigerator un- seen, I'll close the door on her accidentally, and find her there later with a happy smile on her frozen face and both paws around a large beef kidney—a cat killed by her own curiosity. On the other hand, what a way to go!

PETER SELLERS COSBY'S GUEST

English film star Peter Sellers, comedienne Lily Tomlin and the Staple Singers are Bill Cosby's guests on the second broadcast of "The New Bill Cosby Show" Monday, Sept. 18, (9-10 p.m.) on the CBS Television Network.
 Highlight of the Sellers appearance is a type of comedy that has made him famous. In a sketch in which Cosby also performs, Sellers portrays four different characters—diplomats from India, England, Russia and the United States.

YUL BRYNNER RECREATES ROLE

Yul Brynner, re-creating his Tony and Oscar award-winning role from the stage and film versions of the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical "The King and I," stars as the autocratic King of Siam opposite Samantha Eggar, who co-stars as schoolteacher Anna Owens, in "Anna and the King," new series of comedy-dramas which premieres Sunday, Sept. 17, (6:30-7 p.m.) on the CBS Television Network.
 Brynner makes his television acting debut in the series, which is based on "Anna and the King of Siam," Margaret Landon's best-selling book about the Siamese King and Anna Owens, the attractive schoolteacher he hires to educate his brood of royal children. Miss Eggar has appeared on British television.

WAITING ANXIOUSLY — Dr. Paul Hunter (David Hartman, left) and Chief Ironside (Raymond Burr) reflect the tension of the moment as they await developments following the wounding by a sniper of one of Ironside's men in the concluding part of "Five Days in the Death of Sgt. Brown," to be colorcast on NBC's "The Bold Ones" Tuesday, Sept. 19, (8-9 p.m.) on Channel 20. The first half of the two-part drama was colorcast on "Ironside" 8-9 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 14.

AWARD-WINNING CANTATA FEATURES MET SOLOISTS

The Emmy Award-winning "And David Wept," an original cantata commissioned by CBS News and based on the Old Testament story of David and Bathsheba, will be rebroadcast Sunday, Sept. 17, (9-10 a.m.) on the CBS Television Network.

Featured performers, all of the Metropolitan Opera, are mezzo-soprano Rosalind Elias as Bathsheba, baritone Sherrill Milnes as David, and basso Ara Berberian as Uriah. The vocal drama is interwoven with dance choreographed by Jose Limon.

JACK WEBB stars as Sgt. Joe Friday in "Dragnet" when the series returns to Channel 20 at a new time 9:30-10 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 17. Based on authentic cases from the files of the Los Angeles Police Department, Dragnet stresses legwork and brainwork in solving and preventing crimes. Harry Morgan appears as Officer Bill Gannon.

MOVIES THURSDAY

- (4) (7) (31)—8:00 Movie — "The Professionals." Burt Lancaster, Claudia Cardinale, Lee Marvin. Absorbing and entertaining adventure drama set in Mexico following the 1917 revolution in that country.
 (2)—10:30 Movie — "Torture Garden." Jack Palance, Burgess Meredith. Sinister looking man presides over a unique sideshow, where several persons see what is in store for them if they allow the evil side of their nature to take over their lives...
 (4) (7) (31)—10:50 Movie — "The Curse of Frankenstein." Peter Cushing, Christopher Lee, Hazel Court. Condemned to death for a series of murders, Baron Frankenstein tries to prove his innocence.
 (2)—12:20 Movie — "Here Come the Nelsons." Ozzie and Harriet Nelson. David and Ricky become involved with gangsters when Ozzie tries to gain extra publicity for an account handled by his advertising agency.
 (4)—12:50 Movie — "Back from Eternity." Robert Ryan, Anita Ekberg. Eleven plane-crash survivors are marooned in a headhunter region of South America's jungle.
 (4)—2:35 Movie — "The Second Greatest Sex." Jeanne Crain, George Nader. With their men always away battling for a safe containing papers which will decide county seat, women barricade themselves in an old fort. The dispute is soon settled.
 (4)—4:25 Movie — "The Big Heat." William Reynolds, Andrea Martin. A recording company president who hates modern music brings his jazz-loving son into the business. Romance, comedy and music.

Findley To Head Trade Delegation For Farm Products

SPRINGFIELD (UPI) — Illinois officials will leave for Russia on schedule in an effort to open a vast new market for the state's farm products, Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie said yesterday.

Doubts were raised about the timing of the trip when Ogilvie first called a news conference for Sept. 4 to discuss details, then canceled it, citing "problems" in making arrangements with the Soviet Union.

Today, however, he said the delegation — first of its kind from any state — will leave as scheduled Sept. 22.

The purpose of the visit, Ogilvie said at a news conference, "will be to capture every bit of extra business that we can, including that No. 1 share of the president's $750 million grain sale agreement with the Soviet Union, as well as all sales beyond that agreement."

Very Important Event
U.S. Rep. Paul Findley, Rep.-Ill., who will lead the mission, said it "represents one of the most important events in the state's history as it affects farmers."

"I expect that benefits will be felt by Illinois farmers for years to come from the contacts that will be made — and the doors that will be opened — for expanding the president's initial agreement," Findley said.

"Soybean sales, for example, were not covered by the agreement but have already been made in the millions of dollars."

The governor said the mission will meet with officials of the Soviet ministries of agriculture, foreign trade and procurement in efforts to persuade them of the superior nature of Illinois products.

"We particularly want to identify the quality of what we produce here," Ogilvie said earlier this month.

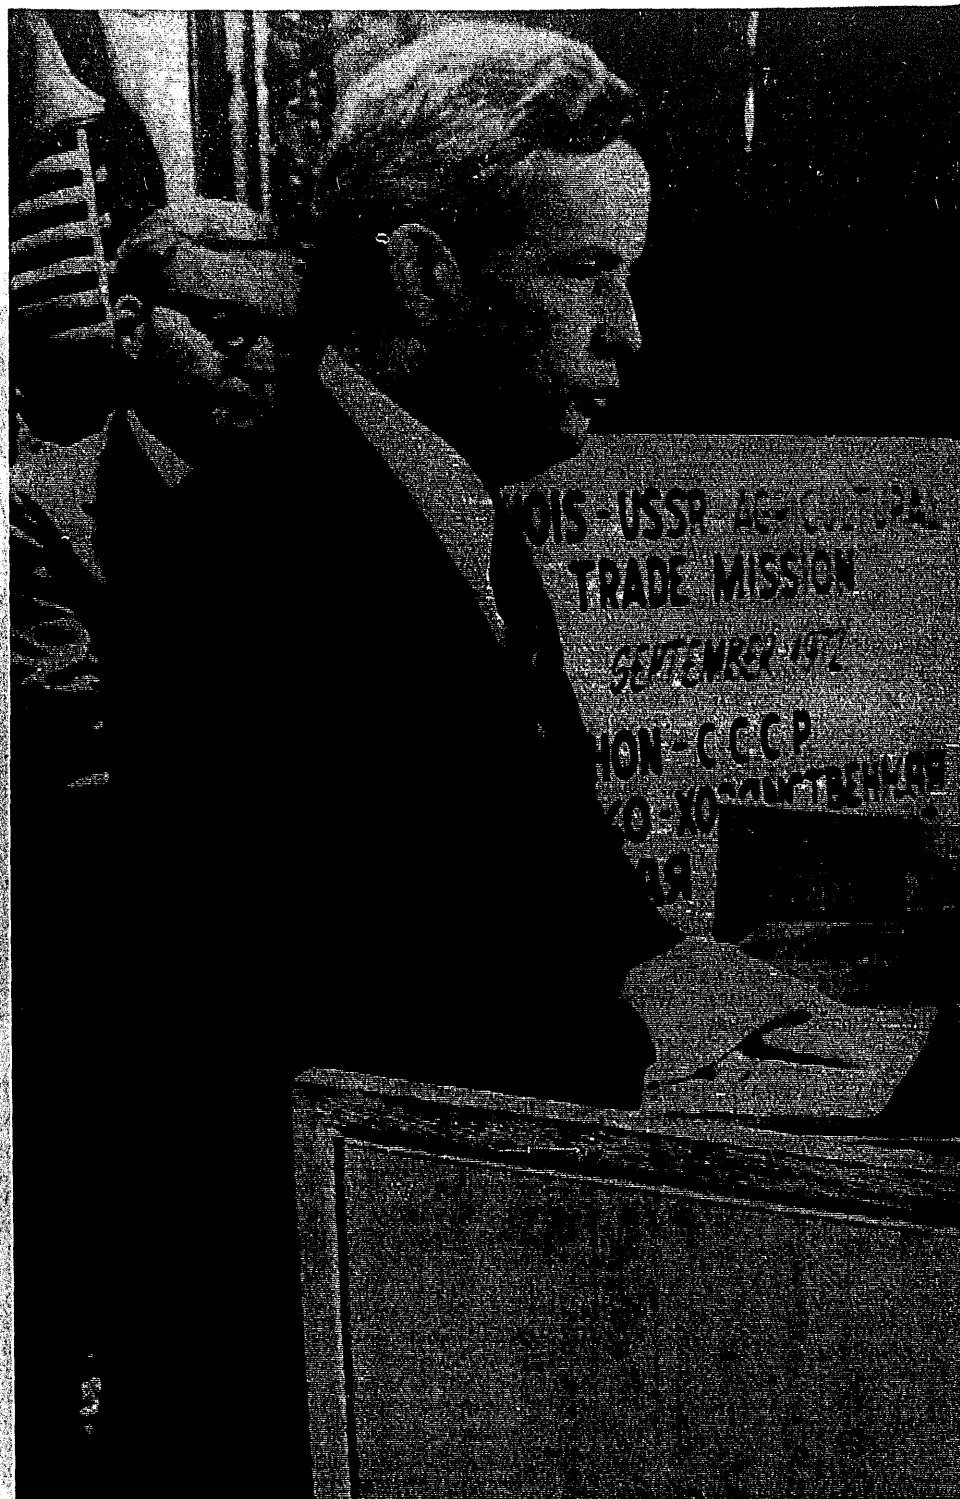

Will Meet Breeders
Besides the Russian officials, the party plans to meet with Soviet livestock and poultry breeders. They will try to interest them in feed grains and Illinois breeding stock.

Others making the trip with Findley, the governor said, are Harold Steele of Princeton, head of the Illinois Agricultural Association; Harold Kuehn of DuQuoin, president of the American Soybean Association; Robert Gilmore of DeKalb, director of the National Livestock Feeders Association; and Prof. Richard Felmer, head of the University of Illinois Department of Agricultural Economics.

Also, Phil Bradshaw of Griggsville, president of the Illinois Pork Producers Association; Ken Hartweg of Funk Seeds Inc.; Jim Stewart of DeKalb Inc.; and Illinois Agriculture Director Gordon Ropp, who will be assisted by James Seeley of Washington and Robert Osborn of Brussels, Belgium.

"I just wish I could go," Ogilvie said.

Illinois already is the nation's leading exporter of farm products. The governor announced recently the state will open an export office in Hong Kong to help expand that lead. An office already is in operation in Brussels.

Westgate Stoplight Bids On Calendar

A joint agreement between the City of Jacksonville and the State of Illinois to provide a traffic safety improvement at the intersection of Westgate and West Morton Road in Jacksonville has been placed on the bidding calendar according to an announcement by Illinois Transportation Secretary William F. Cellini.

Plans call for the installation of traffic signals and the widening of Morton Avenue from 24 to 48 feet to add separate right turn lanes and a storm sewer system in the immediate area.

This improvement is part of the Federally sponsored TOPICS (Traffic Operations to Increase Safety) Program.

Cellini announced that the plans had been approved by the Federal Bureau of Roads and that bids would be awarded Oct. 31.

Estimated total cost of the project is $85,000. The Federal Government will pay one-half the cost through the TOPICS Program.

The State will pay 33 per cent and the city 17 per cent, or about $14,400.

The Department of Transportation drew plans and specifications and will let the contract and directly supervise construction.

Construction on the project could start in November of 1972, weather permitting.

Defendant Gets 6-Month Term For Contempt

A Jacksonville man was found in willful contempt of court Friday morning by Judge John B. Wright and ordered to spend six months in the Morgan county jail or until payment for a separate maintenance agreement is paid in full.

William E. Hayes 50, of 824 North West appeared in court in a civil matter and asked to show cause why he had failed to make payment under terms of a separate maintenance agreement to his wife, Lois.

Hayes told the court he refused to make further payments because he didn't think it was fair. Hayes was taken into custody and removed to the county jail by sheriff's deputies.

In other court action, Steve E. Wilson, 19, of Franklin had the defense side of his case heard by the court on a charge of improper turn. The prosecution side will be heard next Wednesday at 9:30 a.m.

John R. Conner, 24, of Griggville entered a plea of guilty to failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident. He was ordered to pay a fine of $35 and $10 costs.

WATCHES STOLEN FROM McCrory's

The manager of McCrory's store in the Lincoln Square Shopping Center, Mr. Bentz, told city policemen Friday night that 12 wrist-watches had been stolen.

Bentz said the theft of the Lucerne brand watches in both men's and women's styles occurred sometime after noon Friday.

School Board Location Change Next Tuesday

The major portion of the Jacksonville School District No. 117 Board of Education meeting scheduled for next Tuesday evening, September 19, will be held at the Library-Media Center of Jonathan Turner Junior High School. Board of Education President J. Ivan Heaton announced the change of location from the administrative offices at the Red Farm by saying there would be more space available at the school location for an expected large number in the audience.

Mr. Heaton stated that the members of the Board of Education would convene and open the meeting and the public hearing on the 1972-73 budget at the Red Farm offices as originally scheduled. However, immediately after 8:00 o'clock the meeting will be recessed and reconvened at the Turner site for a continuation of the budget hearing and the remainder of the agenda items.

Persons who wish to attend the meeting are asked to go to the media center in the south part of the Turner Junior High School by 8:00 p.m.

Teacher Group Gives Scott Endorsement

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — The Illinois Education Association, which in recent weeks has been highly critical of Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie, endorsed Friday William Scott for reelection as state attorney general.

Scott, a Republican, faces State Sen. Thomas Lyons in the November election.

Curtis Plott, IEA executive secretary, said the association is backing Scott because of his "stand on school finance, public employee retirement systems and unfair business practices that affect schools in our state."

Specifically, Plott said, the IEA applauds Scott's suggestions that state contributions to the public employees retirement fund be increased over a 20-year period.

The teachers group, which last year claimed more than 60,000 members has urged full funding of the retirement system, but the Ogilvie administration has claimed that such money just isn't there.

Attending the news conference with Plott, the attorney general said the Legislature "has not faced up to the commitment . . . to deal with the whole area of pension funding." The IEA has brought suit against the Legislature in an attempt to force them into action and Scott could be defending the state in that suit.

The IEA also praised Scott for his bringing suit against book publishers several months ago charging them with selling books at exorbitant prices to school libraries.

An IEA spokesman said the association would announce its endorsements for the gubernatorial and senatorial races early next week. In recent weeks Plott and other IEA leaders have strongly criticized Ogilvie on his opposition to a teachers right to strike and his veto of legislation which would change the appeal procedures for dismissed tenured teachers.

The spokesman said the association has raised nearly $300,000 for political contributions and is "enrolling 10,000 volunteer teachers for working in political campaigns."
